ARE YOU ADVERTISING IN THE DIRECTORY? ? ?

IF NOT—WHY NOT?

THE POST OFFICE GLASGOW DIRECTORY is an indispensable book of reference, particularly for commercial and professional people in the city. It is also a valuable guide for tradesmen and private citizens because of the comprehensive character of its contents. It is over a century since this ever-increasing compendium was established as an index to the personnel in the social, business, religious, and philanthropic life of the city. Business and commercial people in particular would be severely handicapped if they had not at their disposal the varied and accurate information it contains. It thus readily meets the eyes of purchasers of all classes of goods, and in consequence as an advertising medium is "SECOND TO NONE."

INLAND POST.

The regulations of the Inland Post apply generally to any postal packet sent between one place and another in the United Kingdom (including the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands) and to any postal packet sent between a place in the United Kingdom and a place in the Irish Free State. Special regulations apply in some instances to the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, and the Irish Free State (see pages 13, 18, and 20, Post Office Guide).

Letters. *

1. The rates of postage when prepaid are as follows:—

Not exceeding 2 oz. in weight, 1½d.; for every additional 2 oz. or fraction of 2 oz., ½d.

2. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if posted underpaid, with double the deficiency.

3. No letter may exceed 24 inches in length, 12 inches in width, or 12 inches in depth; or, if made up in the form of a roll, 30 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter. There is no limit of weight.

All letters containing instructions to the Postmaster as to the re-direction of letters, should have written on envelope "Re-direction of Letters;" such an intimation will cause the communication to be attended to at once. For letters addressed to Sailors and Soldiers, see P.O. Guide, pages 93 to 96.

Post Cards.

1. The prepaid rate of postage on every post card is one penny. A post card posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if posted underpaid, with double the amount short paid. The prepaid rate of postage on every reply post card is twopence.

2. The material for private cards to be used as post cards must be ordinary cardboard not thinner than that used for the thinnest cards issued and sold by the Postmaster-General for use as post cards. No card may exceed 5⅞ inches in length by 4¼ inches in width, or be less than 4 inches in length by 2¾ inches in width.

3. Nothing may be attached to a post card except (a) stamps in payment of postage or stamp duty; (b) a label or slip to fold back completely adherent to the card and bearing the name and address of the person to whom the card is sent; (c) a similar label (not to exceed 2 inches long and ¾ inch wide) bearing the sender's name and address; and (d) engravings, photographs, drawings, and printed matter, on very thin paper and completely adherent to the card. A card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below 4 by 2¾ inches. A post card may not be fastened against inspection in any way, or enclosed in a cover of any kind. If any of these rules be infringed, the card will be treated as a letter.

4. The articles specified in paragraphs (c) and (d) may be affixed either to the back of the card or to the left hand half of the address side. The right hand half of the address side is reserved exclusively for the postage stamp and the address. Contravention of this regulation may result in the card being withheld from delivery. (See also Post Office Guide, pages 24 and 25.)

*Printed Papers.

The prepaid rate is:—For every 2 oz. or fraction thereof up to 2 lb. (maximum), ½d.

But any Printed Paper prepaid one halfpenny only and intended for despatch on the day of posting must be posted not later than 4.30 p.m. in London, or in the Provinces not later than such hour as is announced at the local Post Office. The minimum rate of postage for all packets sent at the Printed Paper Rate and intended for despatch by the night mail is one penny if posted after the specified time.

A Printed Paper if posted unpaid is charged on delivery with double postage; if posted underpaid, with double the amount of the deficiency.

A packet is not necessarily admissible at the Printed Paper Rate because it contains nothing but printed matter. The whole of the contents must fall clearly within the definition given below, which does not include articles of stationery such as blotting paper, notepaper, envelopes, labels, etc. And in reading the definition it must be borne in mind that Printed Papers, such as invoices, or proposals for insurance, or greeting or visiting cards, though admissible when filled up and sent to a specific person, are not admissible if sent, not filled up, to a person who is subsequently to put them to the use for which they are intended. Coupons, forms, cards, etc., bearing written answers to acrostics and guessing competitions and written communications indicating (whether by means of words, letters, marks or numbers), moves in a game of chess are inadmissible.

No Printed Paper may exceed 2 lb. in weight. The only limit of size applicable is that applicable to letters.

Circulars wholly or partly printed in imitation of typewriting, or reproduced from a type-written original by a mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies, are admissable at the Printed Paper Rate only if—

(a) They are handed in at a Head or Branch Post Office, Town Sub-Office, or certain of the more important Rural Sub-Offices.

* The rates of postage in the Irish Free State differ from those in force in the United Kingdom.

* For definition of the term Printed Papers, see page 41 of P.O. Guide

(b) Special attention is drawn to the fact that they are printed or reproduced in imitation of type-writing.

(c) At least twenty packets each containing one copy or more are posted at the same time.

(d) A form of declaration, P241, is signed by the poster stating that all the copies of the circulars are identical in text so far as the portion printed or reproduced in imitation of type-writing is concerned, and bear nothing in writing which is not permitted by the regulations of the Printed Paper Rate.

The circulars must be securely tied in bundles of convenient size with the addresses all faced one way. They will be liable to detention or to surcharge if subsequently found to infringe any of the regulations of the Printed Paper Rate.

The special conditions under which invoices, deeds, &c., may be sent as Printed Papers are given on pages 14 to 17 of the Post Office Guide, which may be obtained at any Post Office.

Samples.

Rates of Postage and Definition.

The prepaid rate on Sample Packets is :—

Not exceeding 4 oz. in weight (minimum charge) - - - - -	1d.
Between 4 oz. and 6 oz. - - -	1½d.
Between 6 oz. and 8 oz. - - -	2d.

The limit of weight is 8 oz.

The limits of size are :—12 inches in length, 8 inches in width or 4 inches in depth.

The use of the Sample Post is restricted to bona-fide Trade Samples; and no article is admissible unless it be in fact a specimen of goods for sale. The specimen must be in itself without saleable value. The Sample Post must not be used, in any circumstances, for the conveyance of goods for sale or consigned in execution of an order (however small the quantity) sent from a dealer to an actual, or possible, purchaser, or for the transmission of articles from one private person to another.

The mode of packing and addressing is set forth at page 18 of the Post Office Guide.

Newspapers.

1. The prepaid rate of postage on copies of publications registered for transmission at the Inland Newspaper Rate, including any supplements thereto, is one penny for every copy not exceeding 6 oz. in weight, with a further charge of one halfpenny for every additional 6 oz. or fraction of 6 oz.

The rate is a rate per copy, and, if two or more copies are sent in a single packet, each copy is liable to the same postage as if posted separately. But in no case will a copy or a packet of such copies be chargeable with a higher rate than that chargeable on a printed paper of the same weight.

2. A copy or a packet of copies posted unpaid or underpaid is chargeable on delivery with double the deficient postage at the newspaper rate or printed papers rate, whichever involves the lower charge.

3. No copy or packet of copies may weigh more than 2 lbs. or exceed 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in width or depth or, if made up in the form of a roll, 30 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter.

4. Any publication fulfilling the conditions for registration set forth in the Post Office Guide, can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation by Inland Post as a newspaper.

5. (a) A newspaper must be posted either without a cover, or in a cover open at both ends, which can easily be removed for the purpose of examination.

(b) Every copy should be so folded and covered (if posted in a cover) as to admit of the ready inspection of the title.

(c) No unregistered publication, and no article which is not part of a publication registered as a newspaper or a supplement thereto, may be enclosed in any packet sent at the newspaper rate.

(d) No copy of a newspaper sent by post may bear anything (not being part of the newspaper) except the name, address, and description, either of the sender or of the addressee, or both, with index or reference numbers and letters, the words "with compliments," a request for return in case of non-delivery, the title of the newspaper, and a reference to its registration for transmission by post, and a reference to any place in the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed. The same regulations apply to any cover enclosing a copy of the newspaper.

(e) No unregistered publication, and no article which is not part of a publication registered as a newspaper or a supplement thereto, may be enclosed in any packet sent at the newspaper rate.

(f) No supplement to a publication registered as a newspaper is admissible at the newspaper rate unless it be sent through the post with the publication to which it is a supplement.

(g) If any of the foregoing regulations is infringed the packet is charged either as an underpaid Printed Paper (if admissible at that rate), or an underpaid Letter, or is transferred to the Parcel Post and charged with a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage, whichever involves the lower charge.

"Blind Literature."

Papers of any kind, periodicals, and books, impressed in "Braille" or other special type for the use of the blind, may be sent, prepaid, by Inland Post, at the following rates of postage :—

For a packet not exceeding 2 lb. in weight, ½d.; exceeding 2 lb. and not exceeding 5 lb., 1d.; exceeding 5 lb. and not exceeding 6½ lb., 1½d.

Any such packet, if posted unpaid, is charged with double postage; if posted insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

To be entitled to transmission by this post a packet must—

1. Consist only of articles specially impressed as described above for the use of the blind, and may not contain any communication either in writing or printed in ordinary type, except the title, date of publication, serial number, names and addresses of printer and publisher, price, and table of contents of the book or periodical and any key to, or instructions for, the use of the special type, or any enclosure except a label for the return of the packet.

2. Bear on the outside the inscription "Literature for the Blind," and the written or printed name and address of the sender.

3. Be posted either without a cover, or in a cover open at both ends which can easily be removed for the purpose of examination.

4. Not exceed 6½ lb. in weight or 2 feet by 1 foot by 1 foot in dimensions, or, if made up in the form of a roll, 30 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter.

If any of these conditions be infringed the packet will either be charged as an insufficiently paid printed paper or letter, or transferred to the Parcel Post, and charged with a fee of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage, whichever charge is the lower.

The use of printed labels with the necessary inscription is recommended.

PARCEL POST.

Chief Regulations.

1. The postage on a parcel must be prepaid and the parcel presented at the counter of a Post Office for transmission as a parcel. It must on no account be deposited in a letter box. Parcels may, however, be accepted by Rural Postmen.

N.B.—The name and address must be clearly written in English in characters in ordinary use in the United Kingdom. The sender's address should appear either inside the parcel or on the cover. In the latter case it must be kept distinct from the address to which the parcel is sent, and preferably written at right angles to the name and address of the addressee.

2. If posted irregularly it will—

(a) If fully prepaid at the rate applicable to any other post and admissible by that post be forwarded as a letter, printed paper, or newspaper.

(b) If insufficiently prepaid at the rate applicable to any other post, but otherwise admissible by that post, be charged with double the deficiency or with deficient postage at the Parcel Post rate together with a fine of a penny, whichever is the less.

3. The rates of postage are:—

For a parcel—	s.	d.
Not exceeding 2 lb. in weight - -	0	6
Exceeding 2 lb. but not exceeding 5 lb.	0	9
„ 5 „ „ 8 „	1	0
„ 8 „ „ 11 „	1	3

No parcel can be sent exceeding 11 lb. in weight.

4. The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel are:—
Greatest length - - - - 3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined 6 ft. 0 in.

5. The full postage must be prepaid by means of postage stamps, which must be affixed by the sender.

6. A certificate of posting may be obtained for an unregistered parcel.

7. Parcels are neither accepted for transmission nor delivered on Sundays.

Posting of Parcels in large numbers.

Any person who wishes to send off a large number of parcels, whether on a particular day or at regular or irregular intervals, will facilitate the work of despatch if he will give the office where they will be posted early information of the number of the parcels, their average weight, and the dates and times at which he proposes to post them. He will also meet the convenience of the Post Office by sending the parcels to the post in batches, beginning as early in the day as possible.

Parcels for and from the Irish Free State.

Parcels addressed to the Irish Free State are received from the public under the same general conditions with regard to weight and size, and at the same rates of postage, as parcels for the United Kingdom.

For Customs purposes, the sender of a parcel is required to make an accurate declaration of the nature and value of the contents and other particulars upon an adhesive form which may be obtained at any Post Office. The regulations explained under the headings "Customs Charges Abroad" at page 82 and "Incoming Parcels Customs Charges" at page 85 of the Post Office Guide, apply to parcels sent to or from the Irish Free State. A minimum Customs charge of 2s. 6d. is levied on every single class of dutiable goods contained in a parcel sent to the Irish Free State. A clearance fee of 6d. is charged on every parcel which is subject to Customs duty.

On importation into the Irish Free State certain articles produced or manufactured in the United Kingdom are entitled to preferential rates of Customs Duty, when accompanied by a suitable certificate of origin, which must be enclosed in the parcel together with a copy of the invoice. The Customs Declaration should be noted to the effect that a certificate is enclosed in the parcel.

On payment of a special fee of 6d. the sender of a parcel may take upon himself at the time of posting the payment of the Customs and clearance charges ordinarily payable by the addressee, under conditions described at page 83, P.O. Guide. A parcel intended to be sent under this arrangement must, as a rule, be handed in at a Head or Branch Post Office.

A special delivery fee of 6d., which must in all cases be paid by the addressee, is charged on every parcel sent to the Irish Free State which is not subject to Customs duty.

Restrictions on importation of certain articles into the Irish Free State—see page 13 of P.O. Guide.

Parcels to and from the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

Parcels addressed to or sent from the Channel Islands (Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and the adjacent inhabited islets) are liable to Customs examination at the port of arrival, and the sender of a parcel is required to make a declaration of contents, at the office of posting, upon an adhesive form provided for the purpose. A fee of 6d. (1s. when the duty exceeds 10s.) for clearance through the Customs is charged on every dutiable parcel exchanged with the Channel Islands.

Parcels exchanged between the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man are liable to Customs examination, but the sender of the parcel is not called upon to furnish a declaration of contents. Parcels containing dutiable articles are liable to be detained by the Customs at the port of entry until the Customs regulations are complied with. Parcels which are sent in contravention of the Customs regulations are liable to confiscation, and the senders to prosecution by the Board of Customs.

Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for

See under "General Regulations"—(Poste Restante).

Re-direction of Parcels.

7. Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction, except where both the original address and the substituted address are either served from the same delivery office or are within the same Town Delivery Area, and where re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction allowed for other classes of correspondence (see "General Regulations"). A parcel will not, however, be delivered free of charge to a person who has previously refused to accept it, and for re-issue from a Returned Letter Office a second postage is invariably charged.

Undelivered Parcels.

8. If an undelivered parcel bears on the cover the full name and address of the sender it is returned to him at once and unopened. If not, it is opened by an officer deputed for the purpose, and if it contains the name and address of the sender it is returned to him.

Undelivered parcels which do not contain the address of the sender and are not applied for are liable to be disposed of after three months. Parcels containing perishable articles will be dealt with as may be requisite.

Make-up.

Letters and Postal Packets of every kind, especially parcels, must be so made up as not only to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post, but also not to injure other packets or any officer of the Post Office. If insecurely packed, they are liable to be stopped. The public are warned that the transmission by post is prohibited of insecurely packed packets which are likely to injure other postal packets in course of conveyance or any Officer of the Post Office, and that the senders are liable to penalties under the Post Office Act, 1908.

Any article sent by Letter Post which cannot from the nature of its contents or excess of size be transmitted thereby is, if admissible by Parcel Post, transferred to that Post, and treated and charged as a parcel posted out of course, i.e., charged with the deficient postage at the Parcel Post rate together with a fine of a penny (see P.O. Guide, page 21). If inadmissible by Parcel Post, the packet is liable to be detained and dealt with as the Postmaster-General may direct.

Any packet, especially any letter, containing anything of a fragile nature should be marked or labelled "Fragile."

Nothing inflammable, corrosive, or explosive, may be sent by post, nor anything having an odour so strong as to affect the contents of other packets in the Mails.

There are special regulations governing the sending of special articles through the post, e.g., eggs, fish, game, liquids, semi-liquids, flowers, glass, etc., etc. Full particulars will be found at page 22, Post Office Guide.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.

See under "General Regulations."

Cash on Delivery Services.
Letter Post and Parcel Post.

The value of an article sent by Registered Letter Post or by Registered or Unregistered Parcel Post can, on certain conditions, be collected from the addressee by the Post Office and remitted to the sender by means of a Special Order. (The service is also applicable, with certain limitations set forth in the P.O. Guide, page 33, to consignments conveyed by Railway.) A parcel need not be registered, but may be registered if desired; all packets sent by Letter Post must, however, be registered.

Packets or parcels may be posted at any Money Order Post Office for delivery at any address in the United Kingdom including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man. The service does not apply to the Irish Free State in either direction.

The amount to be collected on delivery, called the Trade Charge, must not exceed £40 and must not contain a fractional part of 1d. The Trade Charge may not be altered or cancelled after the packet or parcel has been posted.

A C. O. D. packet or parcel is normally delivered by postman in the ordinary way. If, however, the amount of the Trade Charge exceeds £10, the packet or parcel is kept at the Post Office to be called for, notice of its arrival being sent to the addressee, and will be handed over, or subsequently delivered by postman, when the amount of the Trade

Charge has been paid at the Post Office. A C.O.D. packet or parcel may be sent by Express Services II. and III., but if the Trade Charge on such a packet or parcel exceeds £10, only the notification of arrival will be delivered by Express Service.

The Cash on Delivery Fees, which are additional to the ordinary postage and the registration fee, are as follows :—

Trade charge not exceeding	Fees.
10s.,	0s. 4d.
£1,	0s. 6d.
£2,	0s. 8d.
£5,	0s. 10d.
£10,	1s. 0d.
£15,	1s. 2d.
£20,	1s. 4d.
£25,	1s. 6d.
£30,	1s. 8d.
£35,	1s. 10d.
£40,	2s. 0d.

The sender must write in ink on the cover of the packet or parcel or on an adhesive address label :—

(1) The name and address of the addressee,
(2) His own name and address,
(3) The amount of the Trade Charge,

and fill up in ink the special Trade Charge Form which will be handed to him.

The packet or parcel must be large enough to afford space for all the necessary particulars to be indicated clearly on one side of the cover : it is not permissible to give them on a tie-on address label. Where, however, one of the smaller sizes of registered envelope sold by the Post Office is used with the address label supplied by the Post Office, or a similar label, the label must be affixed to the back of the envelope, and the address of the packet must be written on the front also.

The ordinary postage must be prepaid by means of a stamp or stamps affixed to the packet or parcel. The Cash on Delivery Fee must be prepaid by a postage stamp or stamps affixed to the counterfoil of the Trade Charge Form.

A certificate of posting will be given for registered packets and parcels and, if desired, for unregistered parcels, as in the case of an ordinary parcel.

The letters C.O.D. should be written by the counter officer in front of the address on the certificate, and the sender should satisfy himself that this has been done before accepting the certificate.

The Trade Charge will be remitted to the sender of the parcel by means of a " crossed " Order. This Order is not negotiable, but special arrangements are made to meet the convenience of payees who have no banking account.

Certificates of Posting of Unregistered or Uninsured Correspondence (except Parcels).

Any person who desires proof that an unregistered letter, letter card, post card, printed paper or newspaper has been posted to a particular person should hand in the letter or other article at a Post Office and ask for a certificate of posting. The fee is ½d., payable by means of a postage stamp, which must be affixed by the sender to the form of certificate.

A single certificate in respect of several articles of the same kind posted at one and the same time can be obtained at any of the larger Head Post Offices, and at any other Post Office by arrangement, if a list of the names and addresses borne by the articles be presented with them. The fee will be ½d. for each article.

It must be clearly understood that articles in respect of which these certificates are issued, are not registered and will not be checked in the post, but will be treated as if they had been posted in a letter-box ; that in the event of loss, damage, or delay, the certificate will confer no title to compensation ; and that it furnishes no proof of the nature of the contents.

Addresses and Petitions to King and Parliament.

Petitions and Addresses forwarded to the King are exempt from postage. Members of either House of Parliament may receive by post Petitions and Addresses to His Majesty, and Petitions for presentation to either House of Parliament, not exceeding 2 lb. in weight, exempt from postage, provided such Petitions and Addresses be sent without covers, or in open covers, or in wrappers open at the ends. This exemption applies only to an original signed Petition or Address, and not to any copy thereof.

Parliamentary Notices, Jury Summonses.

Particulars as to the conditions under which these documents may be served by post may be obtained from the Secretary, General Post Office, or from the Postmaster at any Head Post Office.

Ballot-Papers.

No postage is payable on Ballot-papers, Poll-books, and other documents which have been used at a Parliamentary Election, and are presented at a Post Office by a Returning Officer for transmission by post to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery. When so presented, an acknowledgment in writing of their receipt must be given by the Postmaster.

The above does not apply to Ballot-papers or other documents used at County Council, District Council, or Parish Council Elections, or at any other Elections ; in any such case, if any documents are sent by post the proper postage must be prepaid.

Postage Stamps, &c.

At Money Order Offices the following are kept for sale to the public—viz., postage stamps, which are also available for the prepayment of telegrams, of the respective values of ½d., 1d., 1½d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 5d.,

6d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., and 10s. Registered Letter Envelopes, Post Cards, Letter Cards, Newspaper Wrappers, and Books at 5s. containing thirty-four 1½d. and six each of 1d. and ½d. stamps; at 3s. containing eighteen 1½d. and six each of 1d. and ½d. Stamps; and at 2s. containing ten 1½d. and six each of 1d. and ½d. Stamps. Rolls of ½d., 1d., 1½d., 2d., and 3d. postage Stamps are also issued by the Postmaster-General for sale to the public. These rolls are made up in two different ways—viz., with the stamps reeled lengthwise and reeled sideways.

An item not stocked at any particular office will be specially obtained on a few days' notice.

Prepayment of Postage in Money.

At the Head Offices in Edinburgh, Glasgow, and certain other large towns in the provinces, any Inland postal packets may be prepaid in money, provided that the articles are chargeable with a uniform rate of postage, that the amount paid (including any registration fees) is in no case less than 10s., and that, except in the case of parcels, which must be handed in separately from other postal packets, the packets are tied in bundles of 60 (or in the case of bulky packets, in bundles of a convenient size, each containing 10 packets or a multiple of 10), with the addresses arranged in the same direction. Prepayment, however, cannot be made partly in money and partly in stamps, and the money must be paid at the time the packets are handed in at the Post Office.*

It is a great advantage to the Post Office to receive these special postings, especially when in large numbers, early in the day. The hours of posting are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. or 4 p.m., as may be announced locally.

Postage may also be prepaid in money at many of the smaller towns in the provinces (including all Head Post Towns) provided that at least two clear days' notice (exclusive of Sundays and public holidays) be given in writing, and that the conditions of posting as described above be complied with. Applications should be sent to the Accountant, G.P.O., Edinburgh, and must state—(1) The name of the Post Office at which the articles will be handed in, (2) The exact date of posting, and (3) The approximate number and rate of postage of the articles to be posted.

Articles for prepayment in money cannot be received on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or Bank Holidays.

Deposit Accounts.

Persons who regularly make large use of the Post may, by depositing a sum of money sufficient to cover postage for a week, month, or other convenient period, and by undertaking to pay at the end of such period the amount of postage due, be relieved not only of the trouble of affixing postage stamps to Inland packets, but also of paying postage in money at the actual time of posting.

Accounts may be opened only at those Head Offices at which postage may be prepaid in money. The regulations regarding prepayment in money apply where postage is to be charged to a Deposit Account.

Application to open a Deposit Account should be made to the Secretary, General Post Office, London, E.C. 1, or Edinburgh, as the case may be.

For further particulars see Post Office Guide.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AS TO STAMPS.

Use of Cut-out Postage Stamps.

Postage stamps issued in the reigns of Queen Victoria and King Edward VII. are no longer valid for the prepayment of postage and are not re-purchased by the Post Office.

Embossed or impressed postage stamps cut out of envelopes, post cards, letter cards, newspaper wrappers, or telegram forms issued by the Post Office of the United Kingdom may be used as adhesive stamps in payment of postage or of telegraph charges provided they are not imperfect, mutilated, or defaced in any way. Embossed or impressed Inland Revenue stamps cannot be used in payment of postage, and stamps indicating the payment of a registration fee may only be used for registered correspondence.

Imperfect or Defaced Stamps.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of imperfect or defaced postage stamps. Stamps are considered defaced when marked on the face with any written, printed, or stamped characters. Stamps may, however, be perforated with initials (but not with names or trade marks) provided that the perforating holes are no larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps. The work of perforating stamps with initials is left to private enterprise. Any Officer of the Post Office who undertakes the business does so in his private capacity and not as an agent of the Postmaster-General, who has no responsibility in the matter.

Applications for Allowance in respect of spoiled or unused Stamps.

Allowance is made under certain conditions for unused postage stamps which have not been removed from any material, postage stamps which have been inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled or rendered unfit for use within the past two years, or unused or spoiled postcards or other stationery bearing adhesive postage stamps or printed or impressed with postage stamps.

Application must be made on a form which can be obtained at any Money Order Office. The form and stamps must be forwarded by prepaid post, as directed on the form, to the Comptroller and Accountant General, G.P.O., London, E.C.1; or in Scotland to the Accountant, G.P.O., Edinburgh. Payment will be made by means of an order sent by post direct to the applicant from the Office to which he forwards the form.

Unused Stamps.—No smaller amount than £1 worth will be accepted from one person at one time. As far as possible the stamps should be in blocks or pairs and should be made up into £1 packets, each packet containing stamps of one denomination.

Spoiled Stamps.—No smaller amount than one shilling's worth will be accepted, and in the case of stamps affixed to or impressed or printed on postal stationery the envelopes, post cards, wrappers, etc., must be surrendered entire, and if numerous, banded into hundreds.

Commission is charged at the rate of 5 per cent. of the face value of the stamps. A minimum charge of 1d. will be made in the case of spoiled stamps.

Postage stamps affixed to books, cards, or forms of approved design, used for collecting small sums, are repurchased by special arrangement. Any society or person wishing to adopt this arrangement should make written application to the Comptroller and Accountant General, G.P.O., London, E.C.1, enclosing a specimen of the book, card, or form proposed to be used.

(b) Inland Revenue Stamps.

Applications for allowance in respect of spoiled adhesive Inland Revenue or Fee Stamps, including any spoiled unsigned document impressed with an Inland Revenue stamp, should be made on a form which is obtainable at any Money Order Post Office or any Inland Revenue Office, except in the case of stamps on Policies of Insurance other than Sea Policies, in regard to which application should be made direct to the Inland Revenue Department, London or Edinburgh, or the Ministry of Finance, Belfast.

(c) Insurance Stamps.

Applications for allowance in respect of spoiled Health or Unemployment Insurance stamps which have not been affixed to any material, or Health or Unemployment Insurance stamps which are not spoiled and have not been affixed to any material, but for which the possessor has no immediate use, should be made on a form which is obtainable at any Money Order Post Office. No allowance can be made in respect of stamps which were not purchased within the period of two years next preceding the application.

(d) Entertainments Duty Stamps.

Application for allowance of the value of Entertainments Duty Stamps (including Government Stamped Tickets) should be made on a form which is obtainable at any Money Order Post Office or any Customs and Excise Office. Adhesive stamps affixed to Proprietors' Tickets must not be removed therefrom or defaced in any manner if allowance is to be claimed, and no allowance can be made for Stamped Tickets which have been sold by the Proprietor of an entertainment, but have not been used by the purchaser to gain admission to an entertainment, or for stamps or tickets which were not purchased within the period of two years next preceding the application.

In Northern Ireland, claims for allowance in respect of unused Stamps should be made to the Controller, Stamps Department, Ministry of Finance, Belfast.

Medicine Labels, Coffee Labels, and Playing Card Wrappers.

Allowance for spoiled or unused Medicine Labels, Coffee Labels, and Playing Card Wrappers is made under certain conditions by the Board of Customs and Excise. Application should be made by post, prepaid, to the Secretary, H.M. Customs and Excise, Custom House, London, E.C.3.

Impression of Postage Stamps on Post Cards, Envelopes, &c.

Paper and cardboard for envelopes, wrappers and post cards, can, on certain conditions, be impressed with postage stamps if presented at the Inland Revenue Office at Somerset House, London, W.C.2, or in Edinburgh, or Manchester.

Certification of Purchase of Stamps.

A purchaser of stamps not less than £1 in value or of postage stamps not less than £3 in value, can obtain an authenticated record of the stamps purchased, by presenting a list (in duplicate) on an official or private form. On request, one copy of the list will be date-stamped and initialled by the counter officer.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Inland.

Nothing may be written or printed or otherwise impressed upon or attached to the address side of any packet which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address, or by inconvenient proximity to the postage stamps, or in any other way, is likely to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with it. Contravention of this regulation may result in the postal packet being withheld from delivery.

The regulation is held to be complied with in the case of cards, envelopes, labels and wrappers, if the writing or printing is confined to the left-hand half of the address side, the right-hand half being reserved exclusively for the postage stamps and the address.

Registration and Compensation.

(Detailed particulars are shewn at pages 29 to 32 of Post Office Guide).

The Postmaster-General does not in any circumstances pay compensation in respect of unregistered postal packets, but he pays compensation for the loss or damage of certain classes of postal packets, subject to the rules stated in the Post Office Guide.

I.—Registered Postal Packets.

These fees include the ordinary registration fee of 3d. The highest amount of compensation obtainable for any one packet is £400.

Compensation in respect of money* of any kind (Coin, Bank Notes, Currency Notes, Money and Postal Orders, Cheques, Stamps, &c.) will be paid only in those cases in which the money is enclosed in one of the Registered Letter envelopes sold by the Post Office and the packet is tendered for transmission by Registered Letter Post. The compensation paid in respect of coin, which must be packed in such a way that it cannot move about, will in no case exceed £5.

Compensation for damage to a packet sent by Registered Letter Post will be paid only in those cases in which the packet is conspicuously marked with the words "Fragile, with care."

†These fees relate to Inland Post only.

II.—Unregistered Parcels.

The maximum limit of compensation is £2. No compensation is paid in respect of money* of any kind sent by Parcel Post, whether registered or unregistered, or in respect of jewellery (gold, silver, jewels, &c.) sent by Parcel Post unregistered.

In order to substantiate a claim for compensation in respect of the loss of a Parcel in the post a Certificate of Posting should be obtained by the sender when the parcel is posted.

III.—Express Postal Packets.

Compensation according to the ordinary scale is paid in respect of postal packets of the kinds specified in Sections I. and II., when sent by the Express Service, and up to £2 for the loss or damage of unregistered packets (other than those containing money* or jewellery*) conveyed by special messenger throughout their whole course.

Advice of Delivery of Registered Correspondence.

The sender of registered correspondence may arrange at the office of posting, either at the time of posting or subsequently, for an advice of its delivery to be sent to him. The fee is 3d., which is payable by means of stamps affixed by the sender to a form provided for the purpose.

Enquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered packet should also be accompanied by a fee of 3d., and should, if possible, be made upon the form used in applying for an advice of delivery. If it is found that the Post Office is in fault the enquiry fee will be refunded.

Compulsory Registration.

Packets which contain coin or jewellery and also all inland packets bearing the word "Registered," or any other word, phrase, or mark to the like effect, written or impressed on the cover, are, if posted otherwise than in accordance with the regulations, subjected to compulsory registration, and are charged on delivery with a registration fee of 6d., less any amount prepaid in excess of the postage.

Any packet which is found open in the post, or cannot be delivered, and which is found to contain an uncrossed postal order in which the name of the payee has not been inserted, a cheque or dividend warrant not crossed or made payable to order, a bank note, currency note, postage stamps, or any article (other than coin or jewellery), of a value in each case of 10s. or over, will be subject to registration, and be chargeable with a registration fee of 3d.

No compensation is given in respect of any postal packet which has been compulsorily registered.

Conveyance of Single Post Letters by Railway.

By an agreement with the Postmaster-General certain Railway Companies are permitted to accept and convey, both on week days and on Sundays, by the next available train or ship, single Inland Post Letters not exceeding 2 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address, or to be transferred there to the nearest Post Office Letter Box. In addition to the postage (Inland rate 1½d.), which must be prepaid by means of adhesive stamps, the Companies are authorised to charge a fee of 3d. per letter, which must be paid in cash to the Railway Company's servant. Nothing further is payable on delivery. For a list of the Companies and further particulars, see the current issue of the Post Office Guide, page 42.

Redirection.

Any kind of postal packet may be re-directed to the same addressee at another address, either by an officer of the Post Office, or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, under the following rules :—

Letters, Post-cards, Printed Papers, and Newspapers are re-transmitted by post without additional charge. In the case of re-direction by the addressee's agent the packet must be reposted not later than the day after delivery (Sundays and public holidays not being counted), and must not previous to re-direction be opened or tampered with. If an adhesive label be used for the purpose of indicating the new address, the name of the original addressee must not be obscured. If the name is obscured, the packet will be liable to surcharge as unpaid.

Re-directed packets reposted later than the day after delivery will be liable to charge at the prepaid rate. Any packet which appears to have been opened or tampered with will be chargeable as freshly posted and unpaid.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed package at the second address.

Parcels.—See under "Inland Parcel Post."

Registered Postal Packets.

Any such packet on being re-directed must not be dropped into a letter box, but must be taken to a Post Office to be dealt with as registered. No additional registration fee will be charged if the packet is presented for re-registration not later than the day after delivery; but if it is presented after that time it will be treated as freshly posted, and a fresh registration fee will be payable. As regards postage, the rules given above apply.

If an inland registered packet is re-directed to an address abroad, it becomes liable to the regulations and limitations in force in the International Service (see pages 77 and 78 of the Post Office Guide).

If any registered packet when re-directed, instead of being given back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, is dropped into a letter box, it is treated in all respects as a letter intended for registration but irregularly posted (see page 30, Post Office Guide).

Notices of removal and applications for letters, &c., to be re-directed, must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters to be re-directed are addressed. Printed forms can be obtained from the local Postmaster, and in London at any District or Branch Office, or from the postman of the walk; and, when filled up and signed, they should be sent to the Postmaster or given to the postman; but it is desirable, for the prevention of mistakes, that persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention, so that their letters may be directed in the first instance to their new address. The Post Office does not undertake to provide for the re-direction of letters, printed papers, post cards, and newspapers for a longer period than twelve months from the date of removal, but it is open to any person, after his correspondence has been re-directed for that time, to apply for an extension of the privilege on prepayment of a fee of 1s. a year for the second and third years. For continuing official re-direction after three years from the change of address an annual fee of 5s. is payable. A separate notice should be filled up if it is desired that parcels may be re-directed.

The Post Office only undertakes to re-direct when the letters or other postal packets cannot be re-directed at the place of address. It does not, for example, re-direct postal packets addressed to a person who has temporarily left his house, unless the house be left uninhabited, addressed to clubs, hotels, boarding houses, or lodgings; or addressed to any premises occupied by two or more persons where the letters are delivered by postman into a common letter-box or to a common agent. When business premises are temporarily left unoccupied—as, for example, during a "wake" or other local holiday—re-direction is only undertaken on payment of a fee of 5s. for each period.

Special Delivery of Correspondence. To Residents in Towns.

On ordinary week-days, and on Bank Holidays in England and Ireland, and on the equivalent Local Holidays in Scotland, correspondence for persons residing within a town-delivery area will only be delivered free at the Post Office to Private Box holders and persons entitled to use the Poste Restante. Other persons desiring to obtain correspondence addressed to them must in each case pay a special fee of 3d.; and this fee must be paid for the search (which will only be made if the correspondence for delivery is readily accessible at the time) whether correspondence be found or not. If postal packets addressed to a person at two addresses (for instance, a business address and a private address) are required, and search has to be made on different postmen's walks, two fees will be charged.

Residents in Towns may also obtain correspondence without charge (a) when a delivery by postman is regularly suspended on a local half-holiday, or (b) when a delivery to callers is duly sanctioned and publicly announced.

A person residing in a Rural District may on application at the Post Office from which his letters are delivered obtain, free of charge, anything arriving by mails not connecting with a delivery by postman at his place of residence, or anything which the postman has been unable to deliver, provided that it is readily accessible when applied for. He may obtain packets in other circumstances, (a) if he is entitled to use the Poste Restante, (b) if he rents a Private Box or pays for a Private Bag service, and arranges to call for his Private bag, or (c) on payment of a special fee of 3d. (if postal packets for delivery are readily accessible), the fee being payable whether anything be found or not.

A resident in a rural district may also, on payment of a special fee of 3d., have a packet withheld from a particular delivery to be called for at the Post Office.

Registered Correspondence, including parcels, may be retained at the Post Office to be called for once daily on payment of a fee of 15s. a year, or 30s. a year for calling more than once.

Poste Restante.

Postal packets of any kind to be called for are, as a rule, taken in at all Post Offices except Town Sub-Offices. The words "to be called for" or "Poste Restante" should appear in the address. Such packets are retained at the Poste Restante for one fortnight—foreign letters, two months—unless they bear a request for their return within a specified time, which may not exceed the periods mentioned above. If not called for by the end of that time, they are put in course for return to the sender—see under "Undelivered Correspondence." But if a letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship, expected to arrive at that port, it is kept two months.

The Poste Restante is intended solely for the accommodation of strangers and travellers, and even they may not use the Poste Restante for more than three months.

Postal Packets addressed to initials, or to fictitious names, or to a Christian name without a surname, are not taken in at the Poste Restante, but are treated as undelivered and dealt with as shown below.

In the Provinces the Poste Restante is at the Head Post Offices, and, in some cases, at the Branch Post Offices also.

Postal packets may not be re-directed from one Poste Restante to another Poste Restante in the same town, or from a private address to a Poste Restante in the same town.

Public Holidays.

In Scotland on Sacramental Fast Days (when observed as local holidays), and on Holidays fixed by Local Authorities, there is generally only one delivery of letters and other postal packets by Postman.

In Scotland on New Year's Day there is only one delivery of letters and other postal packets, and the hours for public business are restricted to those which obtain on Sundays. Money Order (including Telegraph Money Order), Postal Order, National Savings Certificate, Savings Bank, Pension and Allowance, Parcel Post, and Licence business is not transacted, and in certain rural areas, packets for registration and parcels are not accepted from the public by postmen on that day.

Undelivered Correspondence.

An undelivered inland postal packet which is chargeable with a postage of 1½d. or more, whether a letter, newspaper or parcel, if it bears on the outside the full name and address of the sender, is returned direct and unopened. Any other such undelivered packet is opened by an officer deputed for the purpose; and if it contains the sender's address it is returned to him. An undelivered postal packet, other than a parcel—see under "Inland Parcel Post"—which cannot be returned to the sender and does not contain any enclosure of importance, is destroyed.

Undelivered post cards, printed papers, and newspapers, chargeable with a postage not exceeding one penny, are dealt with as follows:

(1) Those bearing on the outside the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, are sent back direct from the office of destination, and are delivered to the sender on payment of a second postage.

(2) Those not bearing on the outside the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, are destroyed.

Articles not allowed to be sent by Post.
Anything indecent, or explosive, or dangerous or any living Creature.

There shall not be posted, or conveyed, or delivered by post any postal packet:—

5. Purporting to be prepaid with any stamp which has been previously used to prepay any other postal packet or any other revenue duty or tax; or

6. Having thereon or on the cover thereof any words, letters, or marks (used without due authority) which signify, or imply, or may reasonably lead the recipient thereof to believe that the postal packet is sent on His Majesty's Service;

7. Having thereon or on the cover thereof any words, marks, or designs of a character likely, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, to embarrass the Officers of the Post Office in dealing with the packet in the post;

8. Of such a form or so made up for transmission by post as to be likely, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, to embarrass the Officers of the Post Office in dealing with the packet in the post;

9. Consisting of or containing two or more postal packets (of the same or of different descriptions) addressed to different persons at different addresses.

The transmission by post of any postal packet containing

(a) any advertisement or ticket relating to a lottery at home or abroad; or
(b) any advertisement issued by or on behalf of any person at home or abroad offering to tell fortunes; or
(c) any advertisement circular, coupon or notice relating to any illegal betting business at home or abroad; or

The letters will be delivered from the office of destination by Express Messenger during the hours when that Office is open for Telegraph business. In London the Express fees will be calculated according to the distance from the General Post Office to the centre, approximately, of the Head District or Sub-District in which the address is situated.

Use of Telephones for sending Express and Ordinary Letters.

A subscriber may telephone messages to many Post Offices to be written down and dealt with as express letters or ordinary letters. Similarly the public may dictate letters from any telephone Call Offices where Trunk Calls are accepted. Such letters can be delivered by messenger only during the hours of telegraph business, and not on Sundays to any place outside the London Postal District.

This service enables a subscriber or caller to secure almost immediate delivery of a letter at a cost which (within certain limits as to distance) is substantially less than the cost of a telegram of similar length.

Charges.

The charges for a telephoned express letter or ordinary letter are:—

(1) The local or trunk fee for the telephone call made to the Telegraph or Post Office at which the letter is written down; plus

(2) the charge for writing down the message, namely, 3d. for the first 30 words and 1d. for every 10 words or part thereof in excess of 30; plus

(3) the charge for delivery, which is 6d. a mile or part thereof for express letters, or, for a telephoned ordinary or air letter, the appropriate (ordinary or air) postage.

This service renders it possible to dictate a message to a distant port or town and thus catch a foreign mail or a local delivery for which the medium of the ordinary post would have been too late. The proper procedure is for the subscriber or caller to explain to the local Exchange the nature of the service desired and to ask to be placed in communication with the Post Office at which it is desired that the message be written down and from which it will be delivered.

Any person receiving an express letter which has been telephoned, may employ the delivering messenger for the purpose of sending another express letter back to the

* The service to and from Dublin and Cork is not in operation with the Offices marked with an asterisk.

Post Office to be telephoned to the sender of the original message. For this service, the charges are half of the express mileage rate to the Post Office, plus the normal telephone fee from the Post Office to the place of destination.

Any subscriber to a Telephone Exchange may obtain the services of an express messenger by telephoning to the nearest Post Office which is connected with his Exchange. The fees for the Express Service are calculated upon the whole distance travelled by the messenger from the Post Office.

For further details of this service, see Post Office Guide, page 136.

AIR MAIL SERVICES.

A leaflet containing information concerning the Air Mail services can be obtained on application at any Head or Branch Post Office.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

1. The larger Provincial Post Offices are, as a rule, open for every kind of business from 8 a.m. to 7.30 p.m. or 8 p.m. (larger Irish Free State Post Offices, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.), except on Public Holidays; many of the smaller offices are not open before 9 a.m., and are closed for a period in the middle of the day. Further restrictions are in force at certain Sub-Offices where Telegraph business is not transacted. The hours during which an office is open and the class of counter business transacted can be ascertained by reference to the local window notice at the respective offices.

2. In all offices, whether Head or Country Sub-Offices, which are open to the Public for a longer period, viz., from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., the sale of postage stamps, registration of letters, &c., and acceptance of parcels, is continued during all the hours in which they are so open; unless the offices are open for telegraph business only, in which case the sale of postage stamps only is continued. Town Sub-Offices are open to the Public from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Most Town and Country Sub-Offices are closed early one day in the week, generally on the local half-holiday. Telegrams are then delivered from a neighbouring office at the same porterage (if any) as if delivered from the usual Delivery Office.

3. In all Money Order Offices, and in most of the smaller Post Offices which are not Money Order Offices, postal orders are sold and paid during all the hours in which such offices are open, but no postal order can be sold or paid before 7 a.m. or after 10 p.m.

4. No letter or other packet once posted can be withheld from despatch or delivery at the request of the Sender.

5. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorised to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

6. Postmasters are not bound to weigh for the public any letters or other packets brought for the post, but they may do so if their duty is not thereby impeded. This rule does not apply to parcels, which are tested both as to weight and size before being accepted.

7. Postmasters have no discretionary power to supply information respecting letters or any kind of postal packet to persons other than those to whom they are addressed. They are not allowed to make public any official information of a private character.

8. If any packet be forwarded under cover to any Postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the packet, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words "posted at ———, under cover, to the Postmaster of ———."

9. No letter, parcel or other postal packet can, when once it has been posted in a Post Office receptacle or accepted for transmission at a Post Office, be taken out of the post, even if application be made for it by a person who can prove that he is the sender. Nor can it be detained or delayed even if a request to that effect appear upon the cover. It must be forwarded to its address, and cannot be diverted to any other address at the request of the sender.

10. To facilitate the delivery of Letters a Letter Box should be affixed to every house door.

11. The sender is legally liable for any charges properly made upon a packet which has been posted either unpaid or underpaid, and if the addressee cannot be found, or if he refuses to pay the charges or accept the packet, the charges can be recovered from the sender by legal process.

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL POST.

If subscriptions beginning on the same date are paid for two or more copies of either List to be sent to the same address in the same cover, the charge is at the above rates for the first copy and one half of the above rates for each additional copy.

Parcels for places abroad cannot be registered, although in many cases they may be insured (see pages 88 to 93 Post Office Guide).

The fee chargeable for Registration to a place abroad is 3d. In the case of some countries, as shown in the Table above referred to, an article can be registered only to the port of arrival, it being left to the Postal Authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the Registration or not as they may think proper.

INSURANCE.

Letters.

A letter for a place against which a limit of insured value is entered in column 5 of the Table of Rates on pages 644 to 705 of the Post Office Guide, can be insured subject to the limitations shown in column 8 of the Table.

The letters to which the insurance system is applicable are those which contain bank notes, currency notes, bonds, coupons, securities, and other documents of the kind. Post Cards, packets of Printed Papers or Commercial Papers, Sample Packets, or Letters which contain articles other than documents, cannot be insured. An object of value which cannot be sent in an insured letter may generally be sent either in an insured box or in an insured parcel. (For further particulars see Post Office Guide.)

Letters intended for insurance must be presented at the counter of a Post Office. They cannot be posted at Railway Stations and must not be dropped into a Letter Box or handed to a postman or mail cart driver.

It is, however, permissible to insert in the packet an open invoice confined to the particulars which constitute an invoice, and also a simple copy of the addressee's name and address and the name and address of the sender.

A Box containing prohibited articles is stopped and returned to the senders.

For further particulars, and as regards parcels, see Post Office Guide.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

Imperial and Foreign.

Letters.

A letter posted unpaid or insufficiently prepaid is forwarded and charged on delivery with double the deficiency, with a minimum charge equivalent to 10 centimes (gold), unless it is addressed to a country to which prepayment is compulsory, in which case it is not forwarded, but is returned to the sender if practicable.

An unpaid or insufficiently prepaid letter from a place abroad is charged double the deficient postage; the minimum surcharge is 1d.

No letter for a British Dominion, Colony, or Possession may exceed 2 feet in length or 1½ feet in width or depth. For Foreign Countries the limit of size is 18 inches in any direction. A letter in the form of a roll may not in either case exceed 30 inches in length by 4 inches in diameter. The limit of weight is 4 lb.

To a few countries exceptional conditions apply. (For particulars see P.O. Guide, pages 644 to 705.)

"Panel" Envelopes.

An envelope which is entirely transparent or has an open (or cut-out) panel is not admissible.

The following conditions apply to articles in envelopes with a transparent panel:—

(a) The transparent panel must be parallel to the longest side, so that the address of the addressee appears in the same direction; it must be placed so as not to interfere with the application of the date stamp.

(b) The panel must be sufficiently transparent for the address to be perfectly legible, even in artificial light, and must take writing. Transparent panels which reflect artificial light are prohibited.

(c) Only the name and address of the addressee must show through the panel, and the contents of the envelope must be folded so that the address cannot be obscured, wholly or partly, through slipping.

(d) The address must be legibly indicated in ink or typewriting. Articles addressed in copying-ink pencil or lead pencil are not admitted.

A postal packet of which the envelope has a transparent panel may be registered only if the panel forms an integral part of the envelope.

Advice of Delivery of Registered or Insured Correspondence.

The sender of registered or insured correspondence addressed to any place abroad may obtain an advice of its delivery on application at the office of posting, either at the time of posting or subsequently. The fee is 3d., which must be paid on application by stamps affixed by the sender to a form provided for the purpose. Inquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered or insured packet or insured parcel should also be accompanied by a fee of 3d., and should, if possible, be made upon the form used in applying for an advice of delivery.

Post Cards.

The material for private cards to be used as post cards must be cardboard of a make similar to, but not thinner than that used for cards issued and sold by the Postmaster-General for use as post cards. They may not exceed 5¾ inches in length by 4¼ inches in width, or be less than 4 inches in length by 2¾ inches in width.

Post cards must bear on the face the heading "Carte postale" in French, or the equivalent of this heading in another language. This heading is, however, not obligatory for single post cards of private manufacture.

Reply-paid post cards must bear on the face in French, as heading on the first half, the words "Carte postale avec réponse payée"; on the second half "Carte postale-réponse." Each of the two halves must, moreover, comply with the other conditions laid down for single post cards; one half is doubled over the other and they may not be closed in any way.

Official Inland single post cards (but not reply-paid cards) may be used for a destination abroad if they bear a postage stamp for additional postage required.

A post card must be sent unenclosed, that is to say, without wrapper or envelope.

Samples.

The use of the Sample Post to and from Foreign Countries and the Colonies is intended to be restricted to (a) bona fide trade samples of merchandise without saleable value, and (b) printers' blocks, keys sent singly, fresh cut flowers, articles of natural history (dried or preserved animals and plants, geological specimens, &c.), tubes of serum, pathological objects rendered innocuous by their mode of preparation and packing. These articles, except tubes of serum, sent in the general interest, by laboratories or institutions officially recognised may not be sent for a commercial purpose. Packets containing goods for sale, or consigned in execution of an order (however small the quantity), cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

It is recommended that every sample should be indelibly marked "Sample—not for sale," or otherwise defaced in such a way as to render the article unsaleable in the ordinary way of trading.

A packet of samples sent to any British Dominion, Colony or Possession, Egypt, or non-Union country must not exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in width or depth, but to any foreign place comprised in the Postal Union (except Egypt) a packet must not exceed 18 inches in length, 8 in width, or 4 in depth, unless it be in the form of a roll, in which case the limit of size is 18 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter. The limit of weight for each destination is shewn in the Post Office Guide, pages 644 to 705.

Under the regulations of the Postal Union Sample Packets must be fully prepaid. Insufficiently prepaid Sample Packets from places abroad will be chargeable on delivery with double the deficiency postage (minimum charge 1d.). Further particulars are given on page 71 of the Post Office Guide.

Letters, &c., by Private Ships.

Letters intended to be sent by Private Ship must be addressed "By Private Ship;" and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added.

The Postage and conditions of transmission of letters, &c., by a Private Ship are the same as by Mail Packet.

Foreign Parcel Post and Cash on Delivery System.

For particulars of these services see Post Office Guide, which may be consulted at any Post Office.

Re-direction.

1. The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, &c., which though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom, and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign Country or Colony and re-directed to this country. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to surcharge on delivery.

2. Letters, &c., re-directed after delivery at the first address must be reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery.

A Postal packet intended for Express delivery in any of these countries must be marked "Express," and be prepaid 6d. in addition to the postage. When the addressee resides in the immediate neighbourhood of a Post Office no charge will be made on delivery, but when the place of address is beyond the limits of the Ordinary Postal delivery an additional charge will be levied in the country of destination at its Inland Express rate, allowance being made for the fee prepaid by the sender. In the case of Insured Letters and Boxes, the office of destination is permitted, when its internal regulations so require, to deliver by express messenger an advice of the arrival of the packet instead of the packet itself.

Postal packets from these countries, marked for Express Delivery, and prepaid an Express Fee in addition to the postage will be delivered by Express Messenger subject to the same conditions as regards hours of delivery as Inland Express Postal Packets (see Post Office Guide, pages 37 and 38). Express delivery is undertaken from the usual Delivery Office in London, or within a distance of one mile from the local Post Office in the provinces, without further charge, but if Express Delivery is required to be made from the General Post Office or from the Head District Office in London at an address outside the ordinary delivery of such Office or beyond a distance of one mile from the Local Post Office in the provinces, the charge will be at the same rate as for Inland Express letters, viz., 6d. a mile, and will be collected from the addressee, but, in consideration of the fee prepaid by the sender, 6d. will be deducted from the charge for the full distance.

In the under-mentioned countries in the British Empire, general correspondence (for parcels, see page 86 of the Post Office Guide) will be accepted for Express Delivery in this country, although there are in those countries no arrangements for delivering by special messenger correspondence from this country, and consequently there can be no similar service in the opposite direction :—

Barbados.
Bermuda.
Canada.
Cyprus.
Federated Malay States.
Gibraltar.
Grenada.
Hong-Kong.
St. Helena.
St. Vincent.
Sarawak.
Seychelles.
Straits Settlements.
Trinidad.

In the case of correspondence received from these countries no part of the Express Fee will be prepaid; but the full fee will in each case be collected from the addressee.

Prepayment of Postage in Money.

Postal packets (except parcels) addressed to places abroad may be prepaid in Money under arrangements similar to those shown under "Inland Post."

MONEY ORDERS.

Inland.

The commission for these Orders is :—

For sums not exceeding £3			-	4d.
,, above £3 and not exceeding		£10	-	6d.
,, ,, £10	,,	,, £20	-	8d.
,, ,, £20	,,	,, £30	-	10d.
,, ,, £30	,,	,, £40	-	1s.

No single Inland Money Order can be issued for more than £40, and no order may contain a fractional part of 1d.

The above rates apply to orders issued for payment in the Irish Free State.

Forms of application for Money Orders are supplied gratuitously at every Money Order Office.

A Money Order may be crossed like a cheque for payment through a Bank.

Payment of an Order may be deferred for any period not exceeding ten days after date. The remitter should fill up and sign the request to this effect at the foot of the Order and inform the Postmaster at the time of issue.

Stoppage of Payment.

If it is desired to stop payment of an Order payable in the United Kingdom, or the Irish Free State, and the Order is not crossed for payment through a bank, a notice, accompanied by a fee of fourpence must be sent to the office where the Order is payable. If, however, the Order is crossed, the notice should be sent to the Controller of the Money Order Department, London, N.7, unless the Order was issued in Scotland, in which case the notice should be sent to the Accountant, General Post Office, Edinburgh.

Imperial and Foreign.

Money can be sent by means of Money Orders to almost all our Colonies and Protectorates, or to any of the Allied Countries or their Colonies.

The poundage on these orders is 6d. for £1; above £1 and not exceeding £2, 1s.; above £2 and not exceeding £3, 1s. 6d.; above £3 and not exceeding £4, 1s. 9d., and thereafter 3d. per £ up to the maximum of an order—see Post Office Guide.

TELEGRAPH MONEY ORDERS.

Inland.

Offices to which the System Extends.—Money may be transmitted by Telegraph Money Order from any Money Order Office in the United Kingdom or Irish Free State which is also a despatching Office for telegrams, and may be made payable at any Money Order Office which is also an Office for the delivery of telegrams, or is authorised to pay Telegraph Money Orders.

Foreign.

Telegraph Money Orders may be sent to and are received from certain countries within the British Empire and Foreign Countries, which are indicated by the letter T in column 4 of the list of Countries on pages 784 to 791 of P.O. Guide. In certain of these countries, which are noted in the list (column 5), the Telegraph Money Order Service is restricted to particular places, a list of which may be seen at any Telegraph Money Order Office. For full particulars see P.O. Guide.

By the use of not more than two or three stamps, in number according to the number of spaces on the face of the Order, affixed to the face of the Order any broken amount, not exceeding 5d., may be made up. Odd half-pence will not be paid. Stamps perforated with initials or marks, or embossed or impressed stamps cut out of envelopes, postcards, etc. cannot be accepted for the purpose.

The person who sends one of these Orders must fill in the name of the person to whom it is sent, and, if he so wishes, he can also fill in the name of any particular Post Office, and the Order will be cashed at that Office and no other. The insertion of the name of the paying office affords a safeguard against payment being made to a wrong person. No Postal Order will be paid unless the name of the Payee be inserted in the body of the Order and it properly receipted.

These Orders should be cashed within three months of the last day of the month in which they are issued. Thus, if an Order is bought in the middle of January it should be cashed before the 1st of May; if this is not done, it can only be cashed on payment of a fresh poundage. If an Order is presented for payment more than six months after the month of issue it cannot be cashed until reference has been made to the Money Order Department, London.

Payment of a Postal Order cannot be deferred.

The sender of a Postal Order can obtain repayment of the amount (but not the poundage) on presenting the Order and the Counterfoil at the issuing Office. If the Order has been crossed for payment through a bank the sender must first cancel the crossing by writing across the face of the Order the words "Please pay cash," and add his initials.

Every person to whom a Postal Order is issued should detach and keep the counterfoil. Its production will be necessary if the Order should be lost.

The Postmaster General cannot undertake to consider any application respecting a Postal Order which has miscarried, or which has been lost or destroyed, unless the counterfoil be produced, and unless proof be given to his satisfaction that the name of the payee was inserted in the Order before the holder parted with it.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster General will not be liable to any further claim.

Postal Notes or Postal Orders of Dominion or Colonial issue (other than British Postal Orders of the usual pattern and Irish Free State Postal Orders) are not payable in this Country. Irish Free State Postal Orders are payable in the United Kingdom at the Post Offices at which British Postal Orders are payable.

Home Safes, &c.

The Home Safe is a small steel receptacle (in book or box form) in which money may be placed for subsequent deposit in a Savings Bank account. The Safe is locked when issued but every Savings Bank Office keeps a key which will open it when presented for deposit of the contents.

A safe may be obtained by any person, whether a depositor or not, at any Post Office transacting Savings Bank business, on payment of 2s., which will be repaid when the Safe is given up in good condition. A depositor who so desires may provide the 2s. by withdrawing that sum from his account on demand.

Forms to which stamps may be affixed are supplied at Post Offices for the assistance of children and others unable to save more than a penny or two at a time. Not more than 10s. a month may be deposited in one account by this means, except when special arrangements have been made with schools.

Special facilities are provided for assisting managers of Penny Banks, and for the saving of pence by children attending elementary schools. Information on the subject will be furnished on application to the Controller, Post Office Savings Bank Dept., London.

Facilities for Dealing in Government Stock.

The Post Office undertakes the purchase of Government Securities for any person, whether a depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank or not, and will also effect the sale of such Securities at the holder's request.

Government Annuities.

Immediate Annuities from £1 up to a total of £300 may be purchased through the Post Office Savings Bank on a single life or on the joint lives of two persons with continuance in full to the survivor. A purchaser need not have a Savings Bank account. Proposal forms are obtainable at any Savings Bank Post Office or from the Controller.

National Savings Certificates.

National Savings Certificates (formerly known as War Savings Certificates) offer a means of investing small sums in a Government security bearing a high rate of interest free of Income Tax.

The present issue, which is known as the fourth issue, was commenced on the 2nd August, 1932. The purchase price is 16s., and the Certificates bear interest at a slightly different rate from that which applied to either of the two previous issued. The purchase price is repayable at any time on application, together with any interest which has accrued. A unit Certificate of the fourth issue becomes worth £1 at the end of seven years and £1 3s. at the end of eleven years.

NOTE.—The present rate of interest applies only to the Certificates on sale on and after 2nd August, 1932. Interest on Certificates purchased before that date accrues—according to issue—at the rates indicated at page 178 of the Post Office Guide.

All enquiries respecting National Savings Certificates should be addressed to The Controller, Money Order Department, Manor Gardens, Holloway, London, N.7.

TELEGRAMS.

Inland.

Charges.—The charge for the first 12 words is 1s. (1s. 6d. for telegrams addressed to the Irish Free State), every additional word, 1d.

Telegrams handed in on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day will be charged 6d. extra. In Scotland the extra charge is payable on Sundays only.

Forms with embossed stamps can be obtained singly), or in books of 20, interleaved with a sheet of carbonic paper, price 20s. 3d. per book.

Groups of figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word.

Prepaid Replies.

The cost of a reply not exceeding forty-eight words may be prepaid, and a reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to use it for any inland message at any time within twelve months. If the form be not used, its value will be refunded from Headquarters to the sender of the original telegram if he applies and sends the form within twelve months to the local Postmaster.

Reply Telegrams handed in on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day will be charged 6d. extra unless this amount has been prepaid by the sender of the original telegram, in which event the reply form will be marked on the back "Sunday Rate Prepaid." If the telegram is addressed to a place in Scotland, the extra charge need be prepaid on Sundays only.

Credit Accounts.

Credit accounts for the acceptance without prepayment of telegrams at Post Office counters may be opened, without deposit or account-keeping fee, by regular and extensive users of the Post Office telegraph services. Applications for these accounts should be made to the local Head Postmaster.

Repetition.

Telegrams can be repeated, if the sender desires it, by being telegraphed back from office to office throughout the course of transmission. The charge for repetition, which must be paid when the telegram is handed in, is one half the ordinary tariff. Telegrams containing mercantile quotations or figures, and telegrams written in cypher or according to a preconcerted code, should always be repeated. No copy of a repeated telegram is given to the sender.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have the whole or any part of it repeated without charge so long as the original telegram form is on hand at the office of origin.

Delivery.

The amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery up to three miles (one mile in the Irish Free State) from the terminal office, or within the town postal delivery of the terminal office, if a Head Office, when that delivery extends beyond three miles. When the addressee resides beyond the free delivery, porterage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile or part of a mile, reckoning from the limit of the free delivery. (For further information, see P.O. Guide, page 101.)

Use of Telephonic Addresses for Telegrams.

Telegrams may be addressed to the telephonic addresses of Exchange subscribers for delivery by telephone. The telephonic addresses to be used in such cases must comprise the subscriber's name, Exchange, telephone number and town thus:—

"Jones, Midland 245, Birmingham,"

or, where the name of the Exchange is the same as the name of the town or of a telegraph office or well known locality which is a sufficient address for telegrams, the address may be abbreviated thus:—

"Jones, Stafford 245."
"Jones, Putney 1245."

Delivery by Telephone.

If the sender of a fully addressed telegram desires it to be delivered by telephone and is unaware of the telephonic particulars of the addressee, the telegram will be delivered by telephone if the word "Telephone" (which will not be charged for) is prefixed to the full ordinary address.

There is also an arrangement by which any fully addressed telegram without the prefix "Telephone" from the premises of a telephone subscriber is delivered by telephone if (1) this method of delivery is convenient to the Post Office, and (2) the subscriber has not given explicit directions that telegrams for his address are to be delivered by messenger and not by telephone.

If the sender of a telegram wishes it to be delivered by messenger and not by telephone, he should insert at the beginning of the address the word "Private," which is chargeable at the ordinary inland rate. This arrangement does not apply to a telegram with a telephonic address (see paragraph headed "Use of Telephonic Addresses for Telegrams").

Telegrams sent by Telephone.

Telephone Subscribers and renters of private wires to Postal Telegraph Offices (see Post Office Guide, pages 136 to 138) may telephone messages (except Press messages) for onward transmission as telegrams to a Telegraph Office which can be reached either through the local Exchange System or by means of the Trunk wires. A local telephone fee is charged in respect of each call made to the local Telegraph Office appointed for the acceptance of telegrams by telephone, and if a call is made to a more distant Telegraph Office a Trunk fee may also be payable. Similarly the public may dictate Telegrams from many Telephone Call Offices where Trunk Calls are accepted, as well as from Telephone Call Offices which are kept open as Telegraph Offices after the ordinary hours for telegraph business. The usual fee for the use of the Call Office must be paid in addition to the telegram charges.

In the provinces the sender will generally be put through to the local Head Telegraph Office, and in London to the Central Telegraph Office.

Telegrams posted in Letter Boxes, or handed to Postmen.

A prepaid telegram enclosed in an envelope marked "Telegram, Immediate," may be posted in any letter box either in town or country, or may be handed in a Rural District to a Postman on his way to a Telegraph Office.

Prepaid telegrams so posted are sent to the nearest convenient Telegraph Office and are thence transmitted by wire. Telegrams posted without envelopes are similarly treated. Posted telegrams which are insufficiently prepaid are forwarded to their destination, and the deficiency is charged to the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded. The time of arrival at the Telegraph Office is taken as the time of handing in.

Most Telegraph Offices are closed at 7 p.m., and a posted telegram which does not reach a Telegraph Office before 6 p.m. may not reach its destination until the following day.

Night Telegraph Letter Service.

Night Telegraph Letters may be sent to any address in the town postal delivery of any Head Post Office in Great Britain or Northern Ireland except to the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, the Scilly Isles, Islay, the Outer Hebrides, Mull, and the Orkneys and Shetlands, and to the following towns in the Irish Free State, viz., Cóbh (or Queenstown), Cork and Dublin.

They may be accepted at any time up to midnight either by telephone, or over the counter at any Post Office which is open after 9 p.m. They may also be posted to reach a Post Office in the latter category before midnight. In this case they must be prepaid at the rate shown below and enclosed in an envelope addressed to the office concerned, and marked clearly "Telegraph Letter."

They will be delivered the next day (or, if handed in on Saturday, on the Monday) either by the first postal delivery, or by special messenger as soon afterwards as possible.

The rate is 1s. (1s. 6d. for an address in the Irish Free State) for 36 words or less, and 1d. for every 3 words beyond 36; the usual fee of 6d. in addition is charged on Sundays, etc. (see page 97). A Night Telegraph Letter may be sent Reply Paid on payment of an additional charge of not less than 1s. (1s. 6d. if addressed to the Irish Free State) and not more than 4s. (4s. 6d. if addressed to the Irish Free State) (see page 100 of the Post Office Guide).

A Night Telegraph Letter should be written on a telegram form; and the charge should be prepaid in postage stamps. The Letter must be in plain language and must bear a full postal address. Registered abbreviated addresses and telephonic addresses are not admissible.

A Night Telegraph Letter will be delivered at two or more addresses all in the same place or free delivery on prepayment of the ordinary Night Telegraph Letter charges for the total number of words in the addresses and text in addition to a charge of fourpence for every copy beyond the first. Each address must be complete in itself. The whole of London will for this purpose be regarded as within the same free delivery.

Re-direction.

Fully addressed telegrams can be re-directed to a second address either by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee.

No charge is made for officially recording instructions to re-direct telegrams for a period not exceeding three months. For a record for a period exceeding three months the charge will be £1 1s., and this charge will cover twelve months. The person making the request is responsible for any charges that may be incurred. Re-directed telegrams are liable, if any additional service is performed, to an additional charge of 1s., if the two addresses are within the same town; but if the addresses are in different towns the full inland rate is charged for the re-direction of fully addressed telegrams. Telegrams redirected on Sundays, Good Friday or Christmas Day, will be charged 6d. extra, but if the re-direction is from an office in Scotland the extra charge is payable on Sunday only.

Multiple Addresses.

A telegram will be delivered at two or more addresses in the same free delivery on prepayment of the ordinary telegram charges for the total number of words in the addresses and text in addition to a charge of fourpence for every copy beyond the first. Each address must be complete in itself. Each London Postal District, for example, is regarded for this purpose as forming a separate delivery, and when a multiple address telegram for London is directed to one or more registered abbreviated addresses, the District initials must be inserted after each registered address, and must be paid for.

Registered Abbreviated Addresses.

Any person may register an abbreviated or arbitrary address on payment of the following scale of charges:—

For a period not exceeding 3 months, ...	£0 12 6
Exceeding 3 months but not exceeding 6 months, ..	1 5 0
Exceeding 6 months but not exceeding 9 months, ..	£1 15 0
Exceeding 9 months but not exceeding 1 year, ...	2 0 0

Telegrams for His Majesty's Ships.

The address of a telegram for one of His Majesty's Ships known to be in Home Waters should contain (1) the name of the addressee, (2) the name of the ship prefixed by the letters "H.M.S.," and (3) the name of the Telegraph Office of destination or, alternatively, the word "London."

The Post Office cannot supply information of the whereabouts of a ship, but this information can be obtained on application to the Admiralty, either by telegram with prepaid reply, or by letter stating the time at which it is proposed to send the telegram.

As regards telegrams to His Majesty's Ships in Foreign Waters, see Post Office Guide, page 112.

Cancelling Telegrams.

The sender may have his telegram cancelled, and if it be cancelled before the commencement of transmission the sum paid will be returned at the time, less a fee of 4d. for cancelling it; but if transmission has commenced, the sum will not be returned. If transmission has been completed, an official telegram, prepaid by the sender, will be sent to the Postmaster at the terminal Office. If the official telegram should arrive too late, the sender will be informed that the attempt to cancel his telegram has failed, but the sums paid will not be refunded.

RADIOTELEGRAMS.

For ships at sea.

Radiotelegrams are accepted at any Postal Telegraph Office. For full particulars see Post Office Guide, pages 122 and 832.

IMPERIAL AND FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

Charges.

Particulars of the charges and full list of all countries to which messages may be sent will be found on pages 799 to 831 of the Post Office Guide.

Plain Language; Code Language; Cypher.

In plain language the length allowed for a single word is 15 letters, additional letters being charged for at the rate of 15 letters to the word.

Telegrams containing code language are of two kinds, namely, "Category A" in which no code word may exceed ten letters, and "Category B" in which no code word may exceed five letters. Category B telegrams are subject to a reduced charge (see Post Office Guide for full particulars).

Cypher is composed of—

(a) Arabic figures or groups or series of Arabic figures having a secret meaning.

(b) Words, names, expressions, or combinations of letters not fulfilling the conditions applicable to plain language or code.

Letter and figure cypher cannot be combined in one group.

Multiple Addresses.

A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram (all the words in the several addresses and the text being counted), but a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered if the number of chargeable words per copy does not exceed 50, and an additional sum of 5d. per copy for every additional 50 words or portion of 50 words.

Prepaid Replies.

A reply of any value can be prepaid to all telegrams, but the minimum payment is 1s. 3d. If the sender desires to prepay a reply he must insert before the address of destination "RP....." followed by the amount prepaid in shillings and pence, e.g., RP 29/6, the whole expression counting as one word. A Voucher for the reply is issued by the office of delivery, and the person receiving it is entitled to use it at any time within six months from the date of its issue in payment, or partial payment, as the case may be, of a telegram to any destination abroad.

If the addressee does not use the reply form of a telegram, the cost of the reply will be returned to the sender on application to the Secretary, General Post Office, within six months of the date of issue of the form. The form must be returned with the application. When the charge for the reply sent is less than the amount prepaid, the balance, provided that it is not less than 1s. 8d. in amount, will be returned to the sender of the original telegram on application to the Secretary, General Post Office, within six months of the date of issue of the reply form.

Repetition.

The sender can have his telegram repeated from office to office throughout the whole course of its transmission by paying, over and above the charge for the original transmission, a charge equal to one half the cost of the telegram at the ordinary rate. If the telegram is for one of those countries for which there is a minimum charge per telegram, the lowest charge will be the minimum charge plus one half of the minimum charge. Whenever a telegram is repeated, "T C," which is charged for as one word, must be inserted before the address of destination. This service is not available for letter telegrams.

The sender can have the telegram repeated between the office of origin and the last Post Office in United Kingdom at which it is dealt with on payment of a charge equal to the rate for an ordinary inland telegram of the same length.

The addressee of a telegram from abroad can have any doubtful word or passages repeated either from the first Post Office in the United Kingdom at which it was dealt with or from the office abroad at which the telegram originated. No charge is made for this service. Persons desiring repetitions should apply at the Telegraph Office from which the telegram was delivered.

In certain circumstances, charges are returned. For particulars, see Post Office Guide, page 116.

Mixed Postal and Telegraph Service.

A telegram can be forwarded partly by telegraph and partly by post. Thus a telegram intended, say, for India, can be telegraphed to Marseilles, and thence forwarded by post to its destination to catch the outgoing weekly mail. In addition to the cost of the telegram to the place of posting, a charge of 4d. is collected from the sender if the telegram is to be posted from one country to another, but no charge is made for postage if the telegram is to be posted from one place to another in the same country. If the telegram is to be posted as a registered letter, a registration fee of 4d. is charged in addition to the charge for postage (if any).

The sender should write the word "Poste" before the addressee's name, the name of the terminal telegraph office being written last in the address. For example: "Poste Smith 10 Broad Street Calcutta Marseilles." The word "Poste" is charged for as a part of the telegram. Registered abbreviated addresses cannot be used.

Messages telegraphed to certain ports in United Kingdom for inclusion in outgoing mails —see pages 105 and 106, Post Office Guide (Inland Telegrams).

PRIVATE TELEGRAPHS, AND TELEPHONES.

The terms on which private telegraph and telephone lines can be provided may be ascertained in the provinces by application to the District Managers of the Telephone Service, and in London to the Controller, London Telephone Service.

Part-time private telephone, high-speed telegraph (or photo-telegraphic facsimile transmission) services can usually be furnished to private persons or firms outside the normal busy hour period between 10–12. Full particulars and rates can be obtained from any District Manager of the Post Office Telephone service.

TIME SIGNALS.

Where the Telegraph arrangements permit, Greenwich mean time can be supplied by electric current every hour in the day in London, and at either 9 a.m. or 1 p.m. (Greenwich time) to places in the country.

Where sufficient support is forthcoming special arrangements can be made for the hourly synchronization of clocks.

Information as to rates and arrangements can be obtained in London from the Controller, London Telephone Service, Cornwall House, Waterloo Road, London, S.E.1 (Tel. No., City 2000), and in the Provinces from the District Managers of the Telephone Services.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Under the Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1904-1926, no person may establish a wireless telegraph station or instal or work any apparatus for wireless telegraphy in any place in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, or on board any British Ship, except under a Licence granted by the Postmaster General.

Wireless telegraphy is defined to mean any system of communication by telegraph without the aid of any wire connecting the points from and at which the messages or other communications are sent and received. It includes wireless telephony.

Any person contravening the Act renders himself liable to serious penalties.

Wireless Licences.

Broadcast receiving licences may be obtained at any Post Office at which Money Order business is transacted on payment of a fee of 10s. per annum in each case. Licences are now issued free to blind persons where certain conditions are fulfilled. Particulars may be had at any Post Office.

Transmitting Licences are only issued by the Secretary, General Post Office, London, E.C. 1.

TELEPHONES.

The Post Office telephone system is available for both short distance (local) and long distance (trunk) communication throughout the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man. Calls may also be made to the Irish Free State, to practically all parts of Europe and to most of the important countries overseas, as well as to certain ships at sea (see Overseas Telephone Services, pages 141 to 162, of the Post Office Guide).

Subscribers pay a quarterly rental in advance (on 1st January, 1st April, 1st July, and 1st October) and fees on all calls in arrear (subject to a deposit of about two-thirds of the quarterly user, with a minimum of £1). For full particulars, apply to District Manager, Post Office Telephones.

Trunk Call Charges.

The Telephone Trunk Lines which connect the various Telephone Exchanges throughout the country are available to subscribers, and to callers at Call Offices situated in Post Offices, Street Kiosks, etc.

The charges for Trunk Calls, i.e., calls to Exchanges more than 7½ miles from the originating Exchange (with certain extensions of area in London, Birmingham, Glasgow, Liverpool, and Manchester) are as follows:—

* This charge covers 6 minutes' conversation.

For calls to and from the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands, and particulars of charges for Trunk Calls from places in Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the Irish Free State see Post Office Guide, page 133.

The Call Office fee of 2d. is added to the above fees when a call is made from a Call Office. The Call Office fee is payable in respect of each 3 minutes' conversation in the day-time and each 6 minutes' conversation at night.

The minimum charge covers a period of conversation of three minutes from the time when the caller or subscriber has been informed that the connection is completed, but any caller, by paying the appropriate charge may secure the option of extending a call beyond three minutes.

When the option of extending a call has been asked for by a caller, and the call is completed within the full period for which the charge has been deposited, the charge for the unused period will be refunded (subject to the minimum charge as for 3 minutes).

No charge is made for the use of the Trunk Lines when the person in attendance at the originating subscribers' telephone is not placed in a position to converse with some person attending at the telephone of the distant subscriber.

If a call cannot be duly effected, owing to there being no reply from one of the subscribers, attempts will be made by the telephonist at short intervals to effect the call, unless cancelled, until a period of 2 hours has elapsed. No additional charge will be made in respect of these attempts.

When a call is cancelled after the attention of both subscribers has been obtained and effective communication is practicable, a full charge will be made.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a List of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licenses are also given. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule, and except where otherwise referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38. Separate tables of Estate, Legacy and Succession Duties follow.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped. —§ 3 (2).

Name and "licensed to sell stamps" to be painted in letters not less than an inch in length outside shop, etc. Penalty for selling without license, £20. On termination of license, licensee or his representatives may recover value of stamps less discount. Penalty for hawking stamps (whether person licensed or not), £20. Person in employment of Post-Office may sell postage stamps at any place and in any manner. Discount to be allowed as Treasury direct.—(54 and 55 Vict. c. 38, §§ 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8.)

ALLOWANCE FOR SPOILED STAMPS.

STAMP DUTIES MANAGEMENT ACT, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 38).

Procedure for obtaining Allowance.—§ 9. Subject to such regulations as the Commissioners may think proper to make, and to the production of such evidence by statutory declaration or otherwise as the Commissioners may require, allowance is to be made by the Commissioners for stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say)—

(1.) The stamp on any material inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpose intended, before the material bears the signature of any person or any instrument written thereon is executed by any party:

(2.) Any adhesive stamp which has been inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled or rendered unfit for use, and has not in the opinion of the Commissioners been affixed to any material:

(3.) Any adhesive stamp representing a fee capable of being collected by means of such stamp which has been affixed to material, provided that a certificate from the proper officer is produced to the effect that the stamp should be allowed.

(4.) The stamp on any bill of exchange signed by or on behalf of the drawer which has not been accepted or made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands for any purpose other than by way of tender for acceptance.

(5.) The stamp on any promissory note signed by or on behalf of the maker which has not been made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands.

(6.) The stamp on any bill of exchange or promissory note which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless, although the same, being a bill of exchange, may have been accepted or indorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee, provided that another completed and duly stamped bill of exchange or promissory note is produced identical in every particular, except in the correction of the error or omission, with the spoiled bill or note:

(7.) The stamp used for any of the following instruments; that is to say—

(a.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found to be absolutely void from the beginning:

(b.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended:

(c.) An instrument executed by any party thereto which has not been made use of for any purpose whatever, and which, by reason of the inability or refusal of some necessary party to sign the same or to complete the transaction according to the instrument, is incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended:

(d.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, which by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or for want of enrolment or registration within the time required by law, fails of the intended purpose or becomes void:

(e.) An instrument executed by any party thereto which is inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped, or which becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected being effected by some other instrument duly stamped:

Provided as follows:—

(a.) That the application for relief is made within two years after the stamp has been spoiled or become useless, or in the case of an executed instrument after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within two years after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, or within such further time as the Commissioners may prescribe in the case of any instrument sent abroad for execution, or when from unavoidable circumstances any instrument for which another has been substituted cannot be produced within the said period;

(b.) That in the case of an executed instrument no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence, and that the instrument is given up to be cancelled;

(c.) That in the case of stamps used for medicines or playing cards, the medicines or cards bearing the stamps are produced to an officer and the stamps are removed therefrom in his presence.

Allowance for Misused Stamps.—§ 10. When any person has inadvertently used for an instrument liable to duty a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used a stamp for an instrument not liable to any duty, the Commissioners may, on application made within two years after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within two years after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if liable to duty, being stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused.

Allowance, how to be made.—§ 11. In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps the Commissioner may give in lieu thereof other stamps of the same denomination and value, or if required, and they think proper, stamps of any other denomination to the same amount in value, or in their discretion, the same value in money, deducting therefrom the discount allowed on the purchase of stamps of the like description.

Stamps not wanted may be repurchased by the Commissioners.—§ 12. When any person is possessed of a stamp which has not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the Commissioners may, if they think fit, repay to him the value of the stamp in money, deducting the proper discount upon his delivering up the stamp to be cancelled, and proving to their satisfaction that it was purchased by him at the chief office or at one of the head offices, or from some person duly appointed to sell and distribute stamps, or duly licensed to deal in stamps, within the period of two years next preceding the application, and with a bona fide intention to use it. (See Note a.)

Note a.—The Inland Revenue Office, No. 10 Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every day except Saturday, from 10 A.M. to 3 P.M. (Saturday, 10 to 12). The distributors and sub-distributors of stamps, and authorised postmasters, also receive spoiled stamps for allowance.

A supply of forms of affidavit is kept at the Inland Revenue Office, and by the distributors of stamps, and by most of the sub-distributors and certain postmasters; and claimants may attend at the Inland Revenue Office and have the affidavits taken; or they may take the oath before a justice of the peace, and shortly afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If not brought within ten days or a fortnight afterwards the stamp will not be allowed without a fresh affidavit. If the claim be lodged at Edinburgh, a ticket is issued stating that application is to be made for information as to the result of such claim after the next Monday, and within three months from the date of the ticket. If the claim be lodged with a distributor, or sub-distributor, or postmaster, a ticket is issued stating that application is to be made regarding such claim after a specified date, and within three months from the date of the ticket. If application not made within that time, the claim will be forfeited, and no excuse will be accepted.

The stamps must be presented for allowance within two years after being spoiled. In all cases the stamps must be delivered up to be cancelled.

ESTATE DUTY

(Including the Further or "Settlement Estate Duty, 57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, Part I.; 59 and 60 Vict. c. 28, Part IV.; 61 and 62 Vict. c. 10, Part V.; 63 Vict. c. 7, Part III.; 3 Edw. VII., c. 46, Part IV.; 7 Edw. VII., c. 13, Part III.; 10 Edw. VII., c. 8, Part III.; 2 and 3 Geo. V., c. 8; 4 and 5 Geo. V., c. 10; 4 and 5 Geo. V., c. 76 and following Acts.)

Estate duty is payable on the principal value of all property, heritable and movable, and proceeds and investments thereof, settled and unsettled, which passes on the death of a person dying after 1st August, 1894, either immediately or after an interval, or at a period ascertainable by reference to death, either certainly or contingently, and either originally or by way of substitutive limitation, including all property:—

(a.) Of which deceased at his death was competent to dispose;

Note.—A person is deemed competent to dispose of property if he has such an estate or interest therein, or such general power as would, if he were sui juris, enable him to dispose of the property (including an institute or heir of entail in possession, whether sui juris or not); and the expression "general power," includes every power or authority enabling the donee or other holder thereof to appoint or dispose of property as he thinks fit, whether exciseable by instrument inter vivos, or by will, or both, including a general power to charge money on property, but exclusive of any power exerciseable in a fiduciary capacity under a disposition not made by himself, or as mortgagee.

(b.) In which deceased or any other person had an interest, ceasing on death of deceased—to extent to which a benefit accrues thereby; except where the interest is as holder of an office or recipient of a charity;

(c.) Property taken as a donatio mortis causa or taken under a disposition purporting to operate as an immediate gift inter vivos, or a surrender assurance divesting or disposition of property made or effected three years before the death of the deceased, or whenever made if immediate possession and enjoyment has not been assumed by donee, and thenceforward retained to exclusion of donor or benefit to him; Exemption gifts which are made in consideration of marriage, or which are proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to have been part of the normal expenditure of the deceased, and to have been reasonable, having regard to the amount of income or to the circumstances, or which in the case of any donee do not exceed in the aggregate £100 in value or amount, or made or effected for public or charitable purposes.

(d.) Which deceased has transferred to himself and any other person jointly, by disposition or otherwise, including a purchase or investment alone, or in concert with another, so that the beneficial interest therein, or in some part thereof, passes by survivorship to such other person;

(e.) Passing under any settlement by deed or instrument not taking effect as a will, whether made for valuable consideration or not between settler and any other person, or any trust in writing or otherwise whereby an interest for life, or other period determinable by reference to death, is reserved expressly or by implication to the settler, or whereby he may have reserved the right, by the exercise of any power, to restore to himself, or to reclaim the absolute interest therein, or in proceeds thereof;

(f.) Proceeds of life policies kept up by deceased for benefit of a donee, whether nominee or assignee, or part thereof in proportion to premiums paid by him, where partially kept up;

(g.) Annuities (other than a single annuity not exceeding £25, or the first granted of two or more such), or other interest purchased or provided by deceased alone or in concert with any other, to extent of beneficial interest accruing by survivorship or otherwise on death of deceased [duty may be paid by four yearly instalments];

(h.) "Property comprised in any special assignation or disposition taking effect on death."

Property subject to an annuity or other periodical payment limited to cease on death of deceased, which has been surrendered; § 39 Finance Act, 1930.

ENTAILED ESTATE.

Where an entailed estate passes on death of a deceased who dies prior to 12th May, 1914, to an institute or heir of entail, not entitled to disentail without obtaining one or more consents, or having those consents valued or dispensed with, Settlement Estate Duty, as well as Estate Duty, is payable; but neither Estate Duty nor Settlement Estate Duty is again payable until such estate is disentailed, or until an heir of entail to whom it passes on or subsequent to the death of the institute or heir first mentioned, and who is entitled to disentail without obtaining consent or having the consent valued and dispensed with, dies.

Settlement Estate Duty is not payable on entailed estate which passes by a death after 15th August, 1914, but Estate Duty is payable on every passing of such estate by death after that date, whether the deceased was competent to disentail or not, unless the person dying was the husband or wife of a person on whose prior death Estate Duty has been paid. In the latter case the provisions of sec. 23 (16) of the Finance Act, 1914, remain applicable.

An institute or heir of entail in possession of an entailed estate, not entitled to disentail such estate without obtaining one or more consents, or having those consents valued and dispensed with, paying Estate Duty, and afterwards disentailing, may deduct from the value in money of the expectancy or interest in such estate of the persons whose consents were granted or dispensed with, a proper rateable part of the duty paid by him.

PROPERTY ABROAD.

Charge confined to moveable property, of which the owner dies domiciled in United Kingdom, or to property in which deceased was interested for life, and which was subject of a British trust.

Property in a British Possession.—If duty in respect thereof also payable there, a sum equal to the amount may be deducted from the Estate Duty, provided that in such possession no duty is chargeable in respect of property situate in the United Kingdom, or allowance is made of any duty payable in the United Kingdom. This provision applies to such British possessions as are from time to time brought within its scope by Order in Council.

Where property situate out of Great Britain is bequeathed to or settled on different persons in succession, and legacy or succession duty has been paid thereon, such duty shall be deemed to be payable in respect of the property on the death of each of those persons in succession, notwithstanding that the whole amount of the duty was paid on one death only as in the case of a legacy to one person.

EXCEPTIONS.

Enlargement of interest of settler.—Property settled by a person on himself for life, and after his death for another with an ultimate reversion to himself, is not deemed to pass by death of such other person after 1st July, 1896, in settler's lifetime.

Reverter to settler.—Estate Duty is not payable when property reverts to a settler in his lifetime on the death, on or after 1st July, 1896, of a person having a limited interest under a disposition; provided that no other interest was created by the disposition, and that the person having the limited interest had not, prior to the disposition, been competent to dispose of the property.

Trust property.—Not liable if held by deceased for another person under a disposition not made by deceased, or made by him more than three years before death, and possession and enjoyment bona fide assumed by beneficiary immediately on creation of trust, and thenceforth retained to entire exclusion of deceased or of benefit to him.

National Debt.—Exemption from Estate Duty in case of trust funds and gifts for reduction of National Debt. § 30 Finance Act, 1928.

Bona fide purchase from person under whose disposition property passes, or determination of an annuity for lives—duty not payable where purchase made or annuity granted for full consideration in money or money's worth to vendor or granter for his own use or benefit. Where purchase made or annuity granted for partial consideration value of consideration to be allowed as a deduction from value of property for purpose of duty.

Estate Duty not payable on the property of common seamen, marines, or soldiers, dying in His Majesty's service; nor

On any pension or annuity by Indian Government to widow or child of a deceased officer of such Government.

Section 40 of the Finance Act, 1931, grants exemption from death duties in case of land given to National Trust for Places of Historic Interest or Natural Beauty, incorporated by the National Trust Act, 1907.

Section 40 of the Finance Act, 1930, grants exemption of duty on such pictures, prints, books, manuscripts, works of art or scientific collections as appear to the Treasury to be of national, scientific, historic, or artistic interest, given for national purposes, or to a university, or county council, or municipal corporation. Also on similar articles in private possession while they remain unsold. Duty shall not become chargeable on the sale if sale is to the National Gallery, British Museum, or other similar national institution, any university, any county council, any municipal corporation in the United Kingdom, or the National Art Collection Fund.

Also on the estates of persons killed in the late war while serving with His Majesty's forces as provided by the Death Duties (Killed in War) Act, 1914, and § 31 of the Finance Act, 1919. Extended to cases of members of the crews of vessels killed in war, § 29 Finance Act, 1917. Also extended to persons killed during present disorders in Ireland—Section 43 (1) Finance Act, 1921.

Section 43 (1) Finance Act, 1921. Also extended to cases of persons who die from wounds inflicted, accidents occurring or disease contracted, while on active service against an enemy or on service which is of a warlike nature or which in the opinion of the Treasury otherwise involves the same risks as active service. § 38, Finance Act, 1924.

Where husband or wife entitled, solely or jointly, to income of property settled by the other under a disposition taking effect before 2nd August, 1894, and on his or her death survivor becomes entitled to the income of the property settled by such survivor, duty is not payable in respect of that property until death of survivor.

Estate Duty is not payable on the death of a person who dies prior to 16th August, 1914, in respect of moveable property settled by a will or disposition made by a person dying before the 2nd August, 1894, in respect of which property, inventory, or account duty has been paid, or is payable, unless in either case deceased, at the time of his death, or at any time since the will or disposition took effect, had been competent to dispose of the property.

But where the death is after 15th August, 1914, the property so settled is chargeable with Estate Duty despite such prior payment, unless the person dying is the husband or wife of the predecessor on whose death Inventory or Account Duty was paid and had not been competent to dispose of the property. Where holder of War Savings Certificate or National Savings Certificate is at time of death domiciled in Channel Islands or Isle of Man, rights under certificate are deemed to be property situate out of Great Britain. § 41 Finance Act, 1931. (See also Settled Property.)

Where on a death Estate Duty is payable in respect of property passing under a settlement by will or disposition made before 2nd August, 1894, and before that date any additional succession duty under 55 Vict. c. 8, § 21, or Temporary Estate Duty, or Legacy or Succession Duty at 1 per cent. (which would now be covered by payment of Estate Duty) has been paid, such latter duties may form deductions from the payment of Estate Duty. (See also Limitation for Liability.)

AGGREGATION—ESTATE BY ITSELF.

All property passing on a death to form one estate, on which duty to be levied at the proper graduated rate on principal value; but property in which the deceased never had an interest, forms an estate by itself on which duty is payable at the appropriate rate.

Small estates not exceeding £1000 net.—Where net value of property, heritable and moveable, exclusive of property settled otherwise than by the will of the deceased, does not exceed £1000, such property is not to be aggregated with any other property, but is to form an estate by itself.

SETTLED PROPERTY—SETTLEMENT ESTATE DUTY.

Where property liable to duty is settled by the will of a person dying prior to 12th May, 1914, or having been settled by some other disposition, passes under it on death of a person so dying to some person not competent to dispose thereof, a further duty, called Settlement Estate Duty, is payable on the principal value, except where the only life interest in such property after deceased's death is that of the husband or wife of deceased, or where the disposition took effect before 2nd August, 1894. Property in which the wife or husband of deceased takes an estate of Terce or Courtesy, or other like estate, is to be treated as property settled by will of deceased.

Provided.—(a.) Estate Duty and Settlement Estate Duty are not payable twice under the same settlement, with reference to death prior to 16th August, 1914, unless deceased at his death was, or at any time during continuance of settlement had been, competent to dispose of the property;

(b.) Where the interest of any person under the settlement fails or determines by reason of his death before it becomes an interest in possession, and subsequent limitations under the settlement continue to subsist, the property is not deemed to pass on his death;

(c.) Ad valorem stamp duty on settlement may be deducted from Settlement Estate Duty;

(d.) Settlement Estate Duty not payable where lands or chattels are so settled by Act of Parliament or royal grant that no one of persons entitled in succession can alienate the same;

(e.) Settlement Estate Duty under a will is payable out of the settled legacy or property to the exoneration of residuary estate, and is leviable on an account to be delivered by the executor within six months of death—(after 1st July, 1896).

(f.) Settled property does not include property held under entail.—See Entailed Estate, supra.

(g.) Contingent settlement.—If contingency do not and cannot arise, duty to be repaid.

Where the death is after 11th May, 1914, Settlement Estate Duty is not chargeable, but Estate Duty is payable on every passing of settled property by death after 15th August, 1914, unless the person dying after that date was the husband or wife of the deceased on whose death the prior payment of Estate Duty (and Settlement Estate Duty) was made, and had not been competent to dispose of the property during the continuance of the settlement.

Where, if the death had been prior to the 16th August, 1914, the payment of Settlement Estate Duty would have franked the passing, then, on the first occasion that Estate Duty is again payable on the settled property allowance for the Settlement Estate Duty formerly paid is made.

PERSONS LIABLE—HOW PAYABLE—LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

Executor or Intromitter, Inventory.—Every person who, as executor, nearest of kin, creditor, or otherwise, intromits with, or enters upon the possession or management of, any personal property whereso-ever situate, of which deceased, at his death, was competent to dispose, is to pay the duty thereon, on exhibiting and recording in the proper sheriff court, within six months of the death, an inventory (or additional or corrective inventory) of deceased's estate [Forms A, B, and D1] and may pay, in like manner, the duty on any other property passing on such death, which, by virtue of any testamentary disposition of the deceased, is under his control, or in the case of property not under his control, if the persons accountable for the duty thereon request him to make such payment. He may state on inventory that he does not know amount or value of certain property which passed on the death, and undertake, as soon as ascertained, to pay duty thereon and any further duty payable by reason thereof on the other property in the inventory.

Executor is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to specify in appropriate accounts annexed to the inventory (Form A 1) all the property in respect of which duty is payable upon the death of deceased whether he is or is not accountable for the duty thereon. He shall not be liable for duty in excess of assets received by him, or which, but for his neglect or default, he might have received.

Other persons liable.—Where executor not liable for duty, every person to whom any property passes for any beneficial interest in possession, and also, to the extent of the property actually received or disposed of by him, every trustee, tutor, curator, judicial factor, or other person in whom any interest in the property, or the management thereof, is at any time vested, and every person, in whom the same is vested in possession by alienation or other derivative title, is liable therefor, excepting one who acts merely as agent for another in the management.

A bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice is not liable for duty.

Limitation for liability.—The various limitations in favour of purchasers and mortgagees, etc., under 52 Vict. cap. 7, §§ 12-14, are made applicable to Estate Duty. (See Succession Duty.) After 20 years from the death Commissioners may, on application, remit any duty unpaid or interest thereon in whole or in part.

VALUE—DEDUCTIONS—REPAYMENT.

In estimating the principal value of any property under subsection (5) of section 7 of the Finance Act, 1894, in the case of any person dying on or after 30th April, 1909, the Commissioners shall fix the price of the property according to the market price at the time of the death of the deceased, and shall not make any reduction in the estimate on account of the estimate being made on the assumption that the whole property is to be placed on the market at one and the same time. In estimating the principal value of any agricultural property which comprises cottages occupied by persons employed solely for agricultural purposes in connection with the property, no account shall be taken of any value attributable to the fact that the cottage is suitable for the residential purposes of any persons other than agricultural labourers or workmen on the estate. Provided that where it is proved to the Commissioners that the value of the property has been depreciated by reason of the death of the deceased, the Commissioners in fixing the price shall take such depreciation into account.

An appeal shall not lie under section 10 of the Finance Act, 1894, whether as originally enacted or as applied by any other enactment, where the question in dispute is a question of the value of any real (including leasehold) property, but if any person is aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioners as to the value of such property, he may appeal against the decision in manner prescribed by Part I. of Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, and the provisions as to appeals under that part of the Act shall apply accordingly.

Notwithstanding anything in the last preceding section, the proviso to subsection (5) of section 7 of the Finance Act, 1894, shall continue to apply to the valuation of property consisting of a tenancy from year to year and for determining the gross value or the net value of property for the purpose of section 16 of the principal Act.

Where it is claimed that a fixed duty is payable in respect of any property under subsection (1) of section 16 of the Finance Act, 1894, as being property of a gross value not exceeding £300 or £500, as the case may be, and such property includes property which is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to be subject to a charge created for the purpose of securing unpaid purchase money, or money borrowed for the purpose of paying purchase money, or to be subject to or liable to be made subject to a charge for securing an advance made or to be made for the purpose of the purchase thereof, the value thereof for the purpose of determining the gross value of the property under the said section shall be taken to be its value subject to such charge or liability as aforesaid.

Where an estate, in respect of which estate duty is payable on the death of a person dying on or after 30th April, 1909, comprises land on which timber, trees, wood, or underwood are growing, the value of such timber, trees, wood, or underwood shall not be taken into account in estimating the principal value of the estate or the rate of estate duty, and estate duty shall not be payable thereon, but shall at the rate due to the principal value of the estate be payable on the net moneys (if any), after deducting all necessary outgoings since the death of the deceased, which may from time to time be received from the sale of timber, trees, or wood, when felled or cut, during the period which may elapse until the land on the death of some other person again becomes liable, or would, but for this subsection, have become liable, to estate duty, and the owners or trustees of such land shall account for and pay the same accordingly as and when such moneys are received, with interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum from the date when such moneys are received. Provided that if at any time the timber, trees, or wood are sold, either with or apart from the land on which they are growing, the amount of estate duty on the principal value thereof which, but for this subsection, would have been payable on the death of the deceased, after deducting the amount (if any) of estate duty paid in respect of the timber, trees, or wood under this subsection since that date, shall become payable.

This provision applies to succession duty payable in respect of woodlands in like manner as it applies to estate duty, except as regards rate of succession duty.

Where increment value duty is to be collected on the occasion of the death of any person in respect of the fee simple of any land or any interest in land comprised in the property passing on the death of that person, allowance shall be made in determining the value of the estate for the purposes of estate duty under subsection (1) of section 7 of the principal Act, for the amount of increment value duty so to be collected as if it were a debt.

DEBTS AND FUNERAL EXPENSES.

Allowance against the gross principal value is made for reasonable funeral expenses, and for debts and incumbrances (including debts secured on heritage), if they were incurred or created by the deceased bona fide for full consideration in money or money's worth, wholly for his own use and benefit, and take effect out of his interest.

No allowance can be made for any debt in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other estate or person, unless such reimbursement cannot be obtained.

An allowance is not made, in the first instance for debts due from deceased to persons resident out of the United Kingdom (unless contracted to be paid in the United Kingdom, or charged on property situate within the United Kingdom), except out of the value of any personal property of the deceased situate out of United Kingdom on which duty is paid, and no repayment of duty is made in respect of any such debts, except to extent to which the personal property in foreign country or colony where creditor resided is insufficient for payment.

Repayment of duty in respect of such debts, so far as not allowed for in inventory, may be claimed within three years of recording inventory.

Overpayment of duty.—Where Commissioners satisfied that too much duty paid, excess to be repaid, and, if overpayment due to overvaluation by Commissioners, with interest at 3 per cent.

Foreign property—expenses.—Where Commissioners satisfied that any additional expense in administering or realising foreign property is incurred by reason of its being situate out of the United Kingdom, an allowance for such expense, not exceeding 5 per cent. on the value, is made.

Foreign duties.—Where Commissioners satisfied that by reason of deceased's death any duty in respect of foreign property is payable in the country where the property is situate, an allowance of the amount of that duty is made from the value of the property

INTEREST IN EXPECTANCY.

Where an estate includes an interest in expectancy (including an estate in reversion, and every other future interest, vested or contingent, but not including reversions expectant on the determination of leases), duty in respect of that interest is to be paid, at the option of the person accountable, either with the duty on the rest of the estate, or when the interest falls into possession. If duty not paid with the duty on the rest of the estate, then for the purpose of determining the rate of duty in respect of the rest of the estate, the value of the interest is to be its value at the date of the death of the deceased. The rate of duty upon the interest, when it falls into possession, is to be calculated according to its value at that time, together with the value of the rest of the estate as previously ascertained.

Commutation.—The Commissioners, in their discretion, upon application by a person entitled to an interest in expectancy, may commute the duty which would become payable in respect of such interest for a sum to be presently paid, and for determining that sum they shall put a present value upon that duty, regard being had to the contingencies affecting the liability to, and rate and amount of, such duty, and interest being reckoned at 4 per cent.

Bona fide sale.—Where an interest in expectancy has, prior to the passing of the various Acts respectively, been bona fide sold or mortgaged for full consideration in money or money's worth, no other duty is payable by the purchaser or mortgagee when the interest falls into possession than would have been payable if such Acts had not been passed, and in the case of a mortgage, any higher duty payable by the mortgagor is to rank as a charge subsequent to that of the mortgagee.

WHEN DUE—ADDITIONAL DUTY—INTEREST.

Due.—The duty which is to be collected on an inventory or account is due on the delivery thereof or at the expiration of six months from the death, whichever first happens.

Income.—Every estate is to include all income accrued upon the property down to the date of deceased's death.

Additional duty.—Duty is, in the first instance calculated at the appropriate rate according to the value of the estate, as set forth in inventory or account, but if afterwards it appears that for any reason too little duty has been paid, the additional duty is payable, and is treated as duty in arrear.

Interest.—Interest at 4 per cent. per annum on the estate duty (and all other death duties) is payable from date of death, or where duty payable by instalments, or becomes due at any date later than six months after the death, from the date at which the first instalment or the duty becomes due, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as if it were part of the duty.

Small estates.—Interest not charged on fixed duty of 30s. or 50s. if paid within twelve months after death.

Heritable estate and annuities.—The duty upon an account of heritable property may, at the option of the person delivering the account, be paid by eight equal yearly instalments or sixteen half-yearly instalments, with interest at the rate of 4 per cent. from the date at which the first instalment is due, and the first instalment is to be due at the expiration of twelve months from the death, and the interest on the unpaid portion of the duty is to be added to each instalment and paid accordingly; but the duty for the time being unpaid, with such interest to the date of payment, may be paid at any time, and, in case the property is sold, is to be paid on completion of the sale, and if not so paid, is to be duty in arrear.

Annuity or definite annual sum terminable or perpetual may, at option of person delivering account, be payable by four annual instalments.

Payment postponed.—Commissioners, when satisfied that duty on any property cannot, without excessive sacrifice, be raised at once, may postpone payment for such period, to such extent, and on payment of such interest, not exceeding 4 per cent. or any higher interest yielded by the property, and on such terms as they think fit.

CHARGE OF DUTY ON PROPERTY—
FACILITIES FOR RAISING.

Costs—repayment with interest.—Costs to be in discretion of Court, and Court may order excess of duty to be repaid with interest at 3 per cent. for such period as seems just.

Appeal without first making payment.—If satisfied as to hardship, Court may allow appeal without payment, or on part payment only of duty, and on security for the duty or unpaid portion; but in such case Court may order interest at 3 per cent. to be paid on unpaid duty, so far as it becomes payable under decision of Court.

Where accountable person two years after death delivers and verifies a statement, to the best of his knowledge and belief, of all property passing on the death of the person entitled thereto, Commissioners may determine rate of duty in respect of property for which applicant accountable, and on payment of duty at that rate, that property, and the applicant so far as regards it, to be discharged from further claim for duty, and Commissioners to give a certificate of discharge.

Fraud, etc., after disclosure of estate.—Certificate under (1) or (2) not to discharge any person or property in case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts, and not to affect rate of duty in respect of property afterwards shown to have passed on death; duty in respect of such property to be at such rate as would be payable if value thereof were added to value of property already accounted for.

Bona fide purchaser.—Provided that certificate purporting to be discharge of whole duty payable in respect of any property included in certificate shall exonerate bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice from duty, notwithstanding such fraud or failure.

POWER TO TRANSFER LAND IN SATISFACTION OF DUTY.

Commissioners may, if they think fit, on the application of any person liable to pay estate duty or settlement estate or succession duty in respect of any real (including leasehold) property, accept in satisfaction of the whole or part of such duty such part of the property as may be agreed upon between the Commissioners and that person.

No stamp duty shall be payable on any Conveyance or Transfer of such land to the Commissioners. Commissioners to hold and deal with such property as Parliament may determine.

LIMITATION ON DEBTS DEDUCTIBLE FROM VALUE OF ESTATE.

Where a debt or incumbrance has been incurred or created in whole or in part, for the purpose of, or in consideration for, the purchase or acquisition or extinction, whether by operation of law or otherwise, of any interest in expectancy within the meaning of the Finance Act, 1894, in any property passing or deemed to pass, on the death of a person dying after 29th April, 1910, and any person whose interest in expectancy is so purchased, acquired, or extinguished becomes (under any disposition made by or through devolution of law from or under the intestacy of the deceased) entitled to any interest in that property, then in determining the value of the estate of the deceased for the purpose of estate duty no allowance shall be made in respect of such debt or incumbrance, and any property charged with any such debt or incumbrance shall be deemed to pass freed from the debt or incumbrance.

Provided that:—

(a.) If part only of such debt or incumbrance was incurred or created for such purpose or as such consideration as aforesaid, this provision shall apply to that part of such debt or incumbrance only; and

(b.) If a person whose interest in expectancy in the property so purchased, acquired, or extinguished becomes entitled to an interest in part only of that property, this provision shall apply only to such part of the debt or incumbrance as bears the same proportion to the whole debt or incumbrance as the value of the part of the property to an interest in which he becomes entitled bears to the value of whole of that property.

COMPOSITION FOR "DEATH DUTIES."

Where from number of deaths on which property passed, or complicated interests of different persons therein, or other causes, it is difficult to ascertain amount of death duties (Estate, Inventory, Temporary Estate, Legacy, and Succession Duties), or to do so without undue expense, Commissioners on application, and all information being supplied, may assess such sum on the value of the property or interest as, in the circumstances, appears proper, and accept payment thereof in full discharge of all claims for death duties in respect of such property, and give a discharge accordingly. Discharge not to cover case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts.

APPORTIONMENT OF DUTY.

(1.) In case of property not passing to executor rateable part of duty may be recovered by person who, being so authorised or required, has paid the duty in respect of any property, from the person entitled to any sum charged on such property (whether as capital, or an annuity, or otherwise), under a disposition not containing any express provision to the contrary.

(2.) Any dispute as to proportion of duty to be borne by any property or person may be determined, on application by any person interested, in manner directed by rules of Court of Session, or, when amount in dispute is less than £50, by Sheriff Court where applicant resides or property situate.

(3.) Any person from whom a rateable part of duty can be recovered shall be bound by the accounts and valuations as settled between the person entitled to recover the same and the Commissioners.

Should the gross value have been wrongly stated, as not over £300 or £500, as the case may be, the duty according to the correct value will be payable, and the 30s. or 50s. wrongly paid will be forfeited [unless the Commissioners are satisfied that there were reasonable grounds for the original estimate of the value of the property, when the amount of fixed duty may be deducted from the estate duty payable (3 Edw. VII., 2 c. 48, §14)].

The following further provisions apply to inventories under (2.):—

The executor nominated in the will, or other applicant for representation, may apply to the commissary-clerk or sheriff-clerk, who shall prepare and record inventory [Form B.], and expede confirmation; the will and testamentary writing, where the deceased left such, being produced to the sheriff-clerk or commissary-clerk.

The commissary-clerk or sheriff-clerk may require such proof as he may think sufficient to establish the identity of the executor or other applicant for representation; and if he has reason to believe that the value of the whole estate exceeds £500, he shall refuse to proceed until satisfied as to the real value.

Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY where successor competent to dispose thereof, is on the principal value after deducting Estate Duty, &c. The medical service is provided by general practitioners in private practice who are paid a capitation fee for each insured person on their lists of patients. A recent development is the expansion of the regional medical service which provides for "second opinions" by consultant medical referees who are officials of the State.

The total expenditure from national health insurance funds in 1930 was approximately £32,557,000 in England and Wales, and £3,860,000 in Scotland. There are about 15,182,000 insured persons in England and Wales, and 1,945,200 in Scotland.

The Ministry of Health (England and Wales), the Department of Health for Scotland, and the Ministry of Home Affairs (Northern Ireland) supervise and administer the insurance scheme centrally. Insurance Committees, which are specially constituted statutory bodies, administer medical benefit locally; otherwise, the scheme is administered through approved societies, which are friendly and other societies approved by the State for the purpose of national health insurance. The relevant statutes are the National Insurance Acts, 1911 to 1928.

The contributory pensions scheme is a scheme of widows' and orphans' pensions, children's allowances, and old age pensions. The old age pensions are payable to insured persons and their wives at 65 years of age. Widows' and orphans' pensions and children's allowances are payable on the death of the insured person, and the two latter continue until the children reach the age of 14, or, if under full-time instruction at day school, until at latest the 31st July next after they reach the age of 16. The pensions and allowances are as follows:—

Old age pensions (payable to both man and wife) - - -	10s. a week.
Widows - - - - - -	10s. ,,
Children—
First child - - - -	5s. ,,
Each other child - - - -	3s. ,,
Orphans - - - - -	7s. 6d. ,,

The scheme started in January, 1926, after the passing of the Widows', Orphans', and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act, 1925. The basic qualification for pensions and allowances is insurance for stated periods and the payment of stated numbers of contributions. This qualification is modified in favour of pre-Act classes (i.e., widows whose husbands died or whose husbands were over 70 when the scheme came into force). Thus, a widow whose husband died before January, 1926, receives a pension if her husband was in insurable employment for the last three years of his life, and if either she is 55 or over, or, irrespective of her age, she has a child under 16 at school. Children's and orphans' allowances are payable generally wherever a widow's pension is, or would be payable.

Emigration to any part of the British Empire does not entail loss of pension and insured persons who emigrate may continue their contributions for pensions.

The pensions and allowances are payable through Post Offices and the scheme is administered direct by the Central Departments, the Ministry of Health, England and Wales, and the Department of Health for Scotland.

At the end of 1931 there were about 260,000 pensions and allowances in payment in Scotland.

The Acts are Widows', Orphans', and Old Age Contributory Pensions Acts, 1925 to 1931.

These contributory pensions and allowances are distinct from the non-contributory pensions which are payable under the Old Age Pensions Acts, 1908 to 1924, to persons over seventy years of age whose incomes are below certain limits and who are eligible otherwise on grounds of residence and nationality.

A License shall not be granted to a person under the age of 18 years, or any person who shall have been convicted of theft or any crime inferring dishonesty.

Carriages not to be Licensed till Inspected.

No License shall be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the Carriage, Horse, and Harness shall have been examined by the Chief Constable, Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or other person appointed by the Magistrates' Committee, and reported in writing, to the Magistrates' Committee, to have all the requisites and to be in a fit state to be licensed. No carriage will be licensed unless it be provided with Lamps, and have Roof, Springs, Wheels, Cushions, Linings, Panels, Doors, and Windows clean and in good Repair, and the Steps of entry safe and convenient, and that Skin, Rope, or Coir Mats, or other matting equally comfortable, are provided for Passengers' feet.

Licensee's Name to be Painted on Carriage.

The name of the Licensee of each Carriage, and the number of such Carriage, shall be painted in a straight line on the outside of each door, immediately under the window, in Roman Letters not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from that of the Carriage, and be continued legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Number of License to be painted or affixed on Outside of Carriage.

The number of each Carriage on an enamelled iron plate shall be affixed on the back of the Carriage, and be distinctly visible from the outside, and be kept legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Licenses to be numbered Consecutively and Duplicate signed by the Registrar.

The Licenses shall be numbered consecutively, in the order in which the same shall have been registered; and each Licensee, at the time of receiving his License, shall be furnished with a Duplicate of such License, signed by the Registrar.

When Carriages cease to ply.

Whenever a Licensed Carriage ceases to ply, the Proprietor thereof shall give intimation immediately to the Registrar, Central Police Buildings, and shall return the License to him, and the License will then lapse and become null and void, if it has not already done so by expiration or suspension or revocation; and each Carriage shall not again be used as a Licensed Hackney Carriage until it has been relicensed.

Carriages to be in readiness.

The Owner of each Licensed Carriage shall whenever required by the Chief Constable, have the same ready for hire at one of the Public Stands from Nine o'clock in the morning until Eleven o'clock at night, unless when engaged. And when within their respective yards, coach-houses, or stables, shall turn out for hire as soon as practicable, or can be done without injury to his servants or horses, after being called upon, between Eleven o'clock at night and Nine in the morning.

34. The driver shall lower the flag attached to a taximeter to the recording position when the carriage has been engaged and the hirer has had a reasonable time to take his seat (provided that if from any cause whatsoever outwith the hirer's control the driver is unable to start the carriage, the flag shall be at once lowered to or placed at the non-recording position, and remain in that position until the carriage has been started on the journey, when it shall again be raised or put to the recording position), and during the whole course of the journey the flag shall be kept at the recording position. On the completion of the journey, and while the passenger is in the act of paying the amount of fare recorded, the driver shall lower, put, or place the flag to the third or "stopped" position, so that the meter shall cease to record. He shall not raise the flag to the vertical position until the hirer has examined, or has had an opportunity of examining, the taximeter and the amount of fare recorded.

35. Should the taximeter record a fare higher than is clearly in proportion to the mileage covered, the driver shall not be entitled to exact or demand more than the legal fare by distance chargeable under the Bye-Laws, and in case of dispute the distance shall be ascertained from the Table of distances appended to the Hackney Carriage Bye-Laws. The like fare shall be exigible should the taximeter stop recording during the journey.

36. In the event of the mechanism of the carriage breaking down, or in any way becoming unfit to convey the hirer to the destination for which the carriage is engaged, the driver shall not be entitled to charge any fare for the dis-

37. A driver shall not permit a passenger or any unlicensed person to drive the motor carriage. Provided that, with the permission of the Registrar of Police, a "learner," though not licensed as a driver, may, when and so long as accompanied by a licensed driver, drive the motor carriage when not hired.

ARE YOU AN ISRAELITE?

(Not Necessarily a Jew.)

"A FURTHER REVELATION."

PRESENT-DAY controversies and uncertainties regarding fundamental Christian doctrines proclaim the urgent need of a further revelation, as promised by Jesus Christ (John 14 : 26). This is what PROPHET WROE'S works profess to be. The following summary of the doctrinal points gives a fair idea of the truths taught by the CHRISTIAN ISRAELITE CHURCH.

We believe the Bible to be the Word of God. We believe in an actual fall of man (Gen. 3, 1-24) brought about through the disobedience of our first parents; and that temporal death was thus introduced. That the Fall of Man was permitted, foreseen, and provided for in God's plan of salvation. We believe in Universal Salvation—that " as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive; but every man in his own order." (1 Cor. 15, 22-23).

That this great consummation has been made possible through the obedience of God's Son, Jesus Christ, who tasted death for every man (Heb. 2, 9).

That all who have died in faith will enter upon their reward at the First Resurrection, and that the wicked will be restored at the Final Resurrection (Rev. 20, 5-6).

We believe, that quite apart from these two classes God has an " Elect number," " whom He foreknew " in a pre-existent spiritual state (Matt. 24, 22; Rom. 8, 9).

That this Elect number, having been held in reserve, not to receive temporal mortal bodies, until the end of the Gentile (or present) dispensation, will not die; but will have their vile bodies changed and made like unto the glorious body of Jesus Christ (Phil. 3, 21). " Behold I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep " (or die) (1 Cor. 15, 51).

We believe that all who have died will put on spiritual or incorruptible bodies as the angels, they being the children of the resurrection (Luke 20, 36).

That the glory of immortality has been reserved for the literal seed of Abraham, who will live and reign with Christ upon Earth for a thousand years (Rev. 20, 4).

" And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people; all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the Lord hath blessed " (Isaiah 61, 9).

That the sifting out process of this favoured, or Royal race, began more than a hundred years ago, through various " messengers " who successively were commissioned to revive the preaching of " the gospel of the kingdom " (Matt. 4, 23), viz.: The abolition of death and overthrow of Satan, and establishment of God's kingdom upon earth (1 Cor. 15, 26; Rev. 20, 3, 11, 15).

We believe that this literal and spiritual seed of Israel are at present to be found in the Christian and Jewish churches, ignorant of their royal descent and of the highest destiny which is theirs. Hitherto they have been content with the " assurance of the salvation of the soul," which is all that the Gentile Christian Church either hope for, or are promised, or are eligible to receive (1 Peter 1, 9); but when they hear the sound of full redemption, of Spirit, Soul, and Body (1 Thess. 5, 23)—" forgetting those things which are behind" (the salvation of the soul and all that is implied thereby), they will " press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus " (Phil. 3, 13-14).

If you feel interested in the above, send 4d. in stamps to the Press of

THE CHRISTIAN ISRAELITE CHURCH,

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY.

Established in Glasgow, 1848.

Summary of Report for Twelve Months ending 31st March, 1932.

The primary object of the Society is to visit poor families in their own homes and give assistance in money, food, clothing, &c., to deserving cases; but no work of charity, which it is possible for a layman to undertake, comes amiss to the members—they extend a helping hand to the deserving poor, no matter what their religion may be.

During the year ending 31st March, 1932, the number of families relieved was over 9 382. The number of visits to the homes of the poor was 80,000. Numbers of persons were assisted to get work, and others sent to friends. Through the influence of the Society many admissions were procured for persons to Infirmaries, Hospitals, Lanark Orphanage and Homes.

In addition to the other works of the Society, the members have the undernoted homes under their care:—Holiday Home for poor children, Langbank; and Rutherglen, for destitute children.

The total income for the year amounted to £15,280. This sum has been practically all used in relieving the poor, only a very small sum being required for working expenses, i.e., stationery, &c. The Society holds no property. Its income is derived entirely from voluntary contributions, and is expended as received for the relief of the poor.

The work is carried on gratuitously by over 1,200 members, all laymen, belonging to the various Catholic congregations in the Archdiocese of Glasgow. The books and accounts have been audited by Mr. Hugh Brechin, C.A. (Messrs. Dempster, Brechin & Waddell, C.A.), 34 West George Street, C.2.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the Hon. Treasurer, St. Vincent de Paul Society, 92 Dunlop Street, C.1, or members of the Executive Committee.

COUNTRY HOME FOR POOR CHILDREN, LANGBANK.

Under the auspices of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Supported entirely by Voluntary Contributions.

The object of the Home, which was established in 1920, is to provide a change of air and scene for children recovering from illness, or whose parents owing to poverty cannot afford them a holiday. About 3,900 poor boys and girls have enjoyed a fortnight here during the past year, but now that the extensions, costing over ten thousand pounds, are completed, accommodation is provided for five thousand children to have their annual fortnight's holiday. The Home is entirely free of charge and undenominational.

The cost of maintenance is now about £4,000 yearly, for which the committee in charge have to rely entirely on the unfailing generosity of the Glasgow public, who never turn a deaf ear to the call of the poor children.

Contributions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the Hon. Treasurer, 92 Dunlop Street, Glasgow, C.1. Telephone No. 9815 Central.

Bankers, National Bank of Scotland, Ltd. (St. Enoch Square branch), C.1.

This institution, which has no political objects, and is officially recognised by the Railway Companies and managers and by their chief officers, affords a channel for those who sympathise with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support.

Since the establishment of the Institution in 1858 assistance has been rendered to 284,973 persons, as under:—7,969 widows of men killed; 33,122 widows of men dying of sickness; 237,780 men injured by accident; 5,101 men disabled by old age and other causes; 1,001 children and other dependents incapable of earning their living, and also incapacitated women employees, and in addition to these, 10,033 widows and disabled servants have received pensions of from £5 to £30 per annum; and 3,258 children of both sexes have been educated and maintained.

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—Apart from the numerous cases assisted temporarily by gratuities the Institution is responsible for the maintenance and education of 303 children at an annual cost of over £11,500, also for the payment of annuities granted to 3,703 persons, entailing a yearly expenditure of nearly £60,000.

The majority of the recipients of annuities are widows of railway employees, a large proportion of whom are quite unable to assist themselves in any way, and in the case of the men themselves, they are all permanently disabled, consequently they cannot increase their slender means.

The Scottish committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, EDWARD BAKER, London Midland & Scottish Railway, 302 Buchanan Street, Glasgow, C.2.

BRIDGE OF WEIR AND GLASGOW.

The Orphan Homes for destitute and orphan children were founded fifty-nine years ago, and since then over 19,800 children have passed through the Homes, and thousands of other needy ones have been temporarily helped.

Fatherless and orphan children, who have no friends able to provide for them, are admitted without subscriber's line or voting paper. The Orphan Homes are supported by voluntary contributions, and there is no endowment. There are over 1,200 boys and girls in the Homes at present, and additions are made to these almost daily. A sum of about £48,000 is required annually for the maintenance of these Homes, which comprise about eighty separate buildings, the children being housed in cottages in families of about 25 boys or girls in each Home, under suitable foster parents. Girls are trained for domestic service, &c., and boys learn trades, afterwards, in some cases, being apprenticed and lodged in The City Home at 13 James Morrison Street, Glasgow. Numbers of the boys and girls are emigrated to Canada annually.

The Consumption Sanatoria were begun in 1894, and comprise three separate buildings for patients, and other establishments. There are 100 beds for female and 100 for male patients. Patients in the early and hopeful stages of the disease only are admitted.

The Colony for Epileptics, commenced in 1903, for men and women suffering from epilepsy and for children similarly afflicted, has accommodation for about 120 inmates.

The Annual Report of the work done in connection with the foregoing, and containing statements of moneys received and disbursed, is sent to all donors whose names and addresses are recorded in the books, and an Annual Public Meeting is held in Glasgow at the end of November.

ROYAL HOSPITAL FOR SICK CHILDREN.

Hospital, Yorkhill, Glasgow, C.3.
Dispensary, 11 West Graham Street, C.4
Country Branch, Drumchapel, Dumbartonshire.

Patroness: Her Most Gracious Majesty The Queen. Vice-Patronesses: H.R.H. The Princess Royal, H.R.H. The Duchess of York, H.R.H. Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll, H.R.H. Princess Arthur of Connaught. President, The Right Hon. The Earl of Home, K.T., LL.D. Vice-Presidents, Sir David M'Cowan, D.L., and Lady Gardiner. Directors (32 in number). Chairman and Honorary Secretary, Robert F. Barclay, LL.B., 205 St. Vincent Street, C.2. Hon. Treasurer, Hugh R. Buchanan, LL.B., 172 St. Vincent Street, C.2. Secretary and Cashier, James Methven; Organising Collector, James Glen Boyd—both at Hospital City Office, 86 St. Vincent Street, C.2. Medical Superintendent, Dr. D. Campbell Suttie. Matron, Miss Mary L. Cameron.

The objects of the institution are:—(1) The medical and surgical treatment of poor children suffering from non-infectious diseases; (2) the advancement and diffusion of medical science with reference to children's diseases; (3) the training of nurses for sick children.

The institution (founded in 1882) consists of:—(1) a hospital at Yorkhill, near the University, containing 275 cots, which was completed in 1914, and opened by their Majesties the King and Queen in July of that year. In the wards of the hospital about 6,000 children are treated each year, and in addition there are about 25,000 attendances of out-patients in the admission department of the hospital; (2) an out-patient department or dispensary at 11 West Graham Street, opened in 1888, where over 20,000 cases, involving over 80,000 attendances, are treated per annum; and (3) a country branch of the hospital at Drumchapel, Dumbartonshire, opened in 1903 and extended in 1930, containing 80 cots, where about 1,000 children requiring somewhat prolonged treatment are cared for per annum.

The hospital, dispensary and country branch are all supported by voluntary contributions. The Directors appeal most earnestly for funds, as the ordinary income is quite insufficient to meet the largely increased expenditure necessary if the children of Glasgow and the West of Scotland are to reap the full advantage of all the resources of the new hospital. Subscribers are entitled to recommend one patient for every £1 1s. subscribed. Subscriptions and donations should be sent to the Cashier at the address given above.

Subscribers and others interested and desiring to see over the hospital may do so any afternoon.

LIMBLESS SAILORS AND SOLDIERS.

PRINCESS LOUISE SCOTTISH HOSPITAL, ERSKINE HOUSE, NEAR BISHOPTON.

Patron, H.R.H. Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll.

President, The Rt. Hon. The Lord Provost of Glasgow.

Vice-president, Sir David M'Cowan, D.L.

Hon. Secretary, Sir John S. Samuel, K.B.E., D.L.

Hon. Treasurer, Sir Harold E. Yarrow, Bart., C.B.E.

Acting Secy. and Treas., T. A. Harvie Anderson, C.B, D.L., 201 West George Street, C.2.

The activities of the institution are being devoted to the assistance, medical and otherwise, of all classes of maimed and disabled ex-soldiers and sailors.

During the period of its existence the Hospital has treated 11,261 cases, and has been extended recently to meet the requirements of the Ministry of Pensions who are now utilising the Hospital for the treatment of the majority of their cases in the Glasgow, Western and South Western Scottish Area.

Another direction in which the institution carries on its beneficent labours is in providing Workshops for the employment of disabled men in a variety of occupations suitable to their capacity. There are at present about 80 men engaged at the Workshops in the following occupations:—Basketmaking, Bootmaking, Cabinetmaking, French Polishing, Leatherwork, and Agriculture, including Market Gardening, Pigs, and Poultry.

It is intended that the Hospital should deal with an increasing number of disabled men, and the ideal is to make the institution a Scottish Chelsea Hospital, where, as the years go on, the gallant men who fought and suffered in the Great War, and who find themselves, owing to their wounds and disabilities, unable to cope with modern industrial conditions, can find a haven amid agreeable surroundings, and where they can feel that a grateful country does not forget the debt it owes them for their self-sacrificing loyalty to King and Country.

ELDER COTTAGE HOSPITAL, GOVAN.

President, Mrs. Fred. J. Stephen; vice-president, Andrew Allison, Esq., M.B., F.R.F.P.S.G.

This Hospital, founded by the late Mrs. John Elder, has been carried on successfully for the past thirty years for the benefit of the great working-class community of Govan and district.

The number of medical and surgical cases treated in 1932 was approximately 1,000.

The income of the Hospital from endowment having, since the year 1913, become insufficient, notwithstanding every economy, to meet the ordinary expenditure the Trustees are faced with the alternative of either curtailing the beneficent work of the Hospital, or of appealing to the generosity of the public for an increase in revenue.

Contributions will be gratefully received and acknowledged by the Secretary, J. J. Craik Henderson, Esq, B.L., 190 St. Vincent St., Glasgow, C.2.

The Athenæum School of Music was established in 1890 and its curriculum was designed to provide for the musical education of those studying the art for the pleasure it affords, while at the same time making arrangements for the systematic education of professional students.

The scheme for the foundation of a Scottish National Academy of Music and a Chair of Music in the University of Glasgow was suggested some years ago with the Athanæum School of Music to form a nucleus on which the scheme might be extended and developed. The Chair of Music is now in being and closely associated with the Scottish National Academy of Music (formerly the Athenæum School of Music), the Professor of the Gardiner Chair of Music being the Principal of the Academy.

The administration includes a wide representation of those interested in music and active relationships are being established with the Scottish Universities and the principal Education Authorities and institutions in Scotland.

The curriculum has been greatly extended and in addition to the usual diplomas there has been instituted a special diploma in musical education for students wishing to qualify as teachers in public schools. The course of study extends for a period of three years. This diploma has been drawn up at the request and with the co-operation of The Scottish Music Teachers' Association.
